NO. 12 COUGARS FACE NO. 25 IOWA STATE IN VALERO ALAMO BOWL

No. 12 Washington State heads to San Antonio for a matchup against No. 25 Iowa State in Valero Alamo Bowl. Kickoff is set for Friday, Dec. 28 at 6 p.m. (PT) on ESPN. This will be the first meeting between the two schools.

ALAMO BOWL HISTORY

Washington State is making a program-record fourth consecutive bowl appearance and No. 15 overall appearance. It will be WSU's second trip to the Alamo Bowl, after defeating Baylor 10-3 in 1994, and third trip to San Antonio after facing Notre Dame in a nonconference meeting in 2009. Head coach Mike Leach is making his 15th career bowl appearance and his third in the Alamo Bowl after taking Texas Tech in 2001 and 2009. Leach has led five WSU teams to bowl games, tying the program record set by Mike Price.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY RECORD

Dating back to the middle of the 2003 season, ESPN's College GameDay has had the WSU flag appear throughout the show. The first appearance came Oct. 4, 2003 in Austin, Texas and the streak began two weeks later in Madison, Wisc. (10/18/03). The streak's 217th appearance was its first in Pullman Oct. 20, 2018, a 34-20 win over Oregon. The streak reached 224 after making an appearance in Philadelphia for the Army-Navy game. Two flags – Ol' Crimson and Gray – have been flown in the background of the GameDay set by dozens of friends and alumni. The Gray flag was added in 2014 after Whitey was retired in honor of Steve Gleason's "No White Flags." In addition to the flags that fly, there is a traveling flag signed by the holders after each episode. The traveling flag is retired after each season, the first is hanging in WSU's Alumni Center.

ABOUT WASHINGTON STATE

Washington State entered the bowl season ranked No. 12 in the Associated Press Top-25 with a 10-2 overall record and 7-2 mark in Pac-12 Conference play. WSU's 10 wins match a program record, the sixth10-win season in program history and the first since 2003. The Cougars own the nation's best passing attack (380.0 ypg) and the No. 30-ranked defense in the country (346.6 ypg). Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year, quarterback Gardner Minshew II paces the country in passing (373.3) and total offense (381.9) and is fifth in touchdown passes (36).

LEACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE AVAILABILITY

WSU head football coach Mike Leach is available for individual media interviews following practices Tuesday and Wednesday, along with after each Cougar game. Arrangements for interviews with coach Leach other than those times must be made through the WSU Athletic Communications office. WSU players are available for interviews after each game and three student-athletes will be made available only following Tuesday's practice. Contact Bill Stevens (wsstevens@ wsu.edu) or Bobby Alworth (bobby.alworth@wsu.edu) in the WSU Athletic Communications Office. Media are reminded that they should not contact studentathletes via their cell phones or social media accounts. All interviews need to be scheduled through the Athletic Communications Office.

PRACTICE POLICY

The first 15 minutes of individual position drills at each practice will be open to media and only members of the coaching staff will be available to the media. Following the 15 minutes of open practice, the remainder of practice will be closed. Interviews with members of the coaching staff will be conducted on the field after practice. Media is asked to not report on injuries or strategy. All walk-thru practices are closed with no media availability.

MEDIA INFORMATION

THE WASHINGTON STATE IMG COLLEGE NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State IMG College Sports Network. The 19-station football network reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches.

IMG College produces the Washington State IMG College Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall and winter seasons.

IMG College, founded in 1992 in its corporate home of Winston-Salem, NC, manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Martin Stadium, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

WSU CONTINUES WORK PROMOTING MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

Following the tragic suicide of Washington State University student-athlete Tyler Hilinski last January, the university embarked on a number of activities to raise awareness of suicide prevention on campus. WSU's goal is to properly pay tribute to Tyler's memory while destigmatizing mental health concerns and delivering a strong message of hope and healing. As part of this commitment, four new initiatives were launched on campus last semester. These included:

- A second formal mental health screening for all members of the football team following the death of Tyler, along with meetings with all varsity athletes to help identify individuals who might be at risk for mental health issues.
- Adding a full-time clinical psychologist to the Athletic Department health and wellness area.
- Providing free access to Mental Health First Aid, a proactive intervention training, for the entire WSU student body,
- Active engagement with the JED Foundation to identify any changes that might be needed in the care of our students.

In addition to the immediate steps the university undertook during the last academic year, WSU students embraced the cause as well. The Associated Students of Washington State University (ASWSU) launched the Cougar Health Fund, a student-driven endowment that sponsors mental health awareness and related initiatives on the WSU Pullman campus. In the spring, ASWSU hosted the Cougar Courage 5K run to help raise money for the endowment. By the end of April, the group had already raised $50,000.

WSU COMMITTED TO ADDITIONAL STEPS IN 2018-19

These include:

- Inviting the Hilinski family to raise the Cougar flag at the September 8, 2018 home opener against San Jose State University to start the 2018 football season. (The National Alliance on Mental Illness has designated September as Suicide Prevention Awareness Month and September 10 is recognized as World Suicide Prevention Day).
- The football team will remember Tyler by displaying a decal on the back of their game day helmets this year and will maintain Tyler's locker as a "Locker of Hope" throughout the 2018 season.
- The university is adding a highlight from Tyler's playing career to the "Way Back Home" video, which will be shown at every home game throughout the 2018 football season. A public service announcement addressing mental health awareness and suicide prevention will also be played at home football games this year.
- A HILINSKI'S HOPE FOUNDATION flag will be displayed inside the stadium for the 2018 season.
- Plans are underway for a new multi-day event, Game Day for Mental Health, in April 2019 to coincide with the Crimson and Gray Spring Football Game on April 20. The Athletics Department will be returning the spring football game to Martin Stadium this year and, in coordination with Student Affairs, will create a series of activities around the preseason scrimmage.
- WSU will host a series of lectures during the 2018-2019 academic year that will be focused in the mental health arena. These lectures will be open to the entire university community, and began earlier this month with former WSU student-athlete Collin Henderson, as well as Dr. Derek Greenfield discussing inclusive excellence and positive change.
- The university will develop a permanent Walk of Hope on the Pullman campus. This memorial will offer messages of hope and provide resource information for those in need of mental health support.
- WSU Athletics will release a public service announcement to kickoff Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, featuring student-athletes from all WSU athletic programs.
- WSU Athletics, in partnership with Hilinski's Hope, is also joining with national experts in developing an innovative peer-to-peer mental health awareness program, beginning this September.

MINSHEW II FIFTH IN HEISMAN TROPHY VOTING

Quarterback Gardner Minshew II finished fifth in the 2018 Heisman Trophy voting, four points behind West Virginia guarterback Will Grier, Minshew II received six first-place votes and was the second-highest finish by a Cougar in the Heisman since quarterback Ryan Leaf finished third in 1997. Minshew II led the country in passing yards per game (373.3), total offense (381.9), 300-yard games (11), 400-yard games (six), was second in passing yards (4,480) and fifth in touchdown passes (36). The graduate senior from Brandon, Miss. also rushed for three touchdowns and led three fourth quarter game-winning drives (Utah, at Stanford, California).

DILLARD, LUCAS PICK UP ALL-AMERICA HONORS

Offensive tackles Andre Dillard and Abraham Lucas each earned All-America honors in 2018, giving WSU an All-America offensive lineman for the fourth straight season after Joe Dahl (LT) was a second-team selection in 2015 and Cody O'Connell (LG) earned first-team honors in 2016 and 2017. Dillard, a redshirt-senior, was named to the All-America Second Team (Sl.com) and All-America Third Team (AP) after starting all 12 games at left tackle and was rated the third-best offensive tackle in the country, the top pass-blocking tackle and second-best screenblocking tackle in the country by ProFootballFocus College. Lucas, a redshirt-freshman, was named to Freshman All-America Teams by the USA Today and The Athletic after starting all 12 games at right tackle and was rated the ninth-best tackle and second-best pass-blocking tackle in the country by ProFootballFocus College.

MIKE LEACH, GARDNER MINSHEW II EARN PAC-12 TOP AWARDS

Head Coach Mike Leach was named the 2018 Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year and quarterback Gardner Minshew II was named the 2018 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Leach earns his second Pac-12 Coach of the Year honor after sharing the honor in 2015. Leach, in his seventh season at WSU, guided the Cougars to a 10-2 overall record including a 7-2 mark in conference play and earned a trip to the Valero Alamo Bowl. Leach is the third Cougar head coach to earn two Conference Coach of the Year awards, joining Jim Walden and Mike Price. Minshew II is the first Cougar to win a conference yearly honor since guarterback Jason Gesser was named the Pac-10 Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 2002. Also of note, Cougar freshman running back Max Borghi was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honorable mention after receiving votes from the Pac-12 coaches. Borghi appeared in all 12 games, scored 11 total touchdowns, good for seventh-most in the conference. The Arvada, Colo. native rushed for seven touchdowns, averaged 5.3 yards per carry and also caught 47 passes, four that went for touchdowns.

12 COUGARS NAMED ALL-PAC-12, MINSHEW II AND DILLARD FIRST TEAM

12 Cougars earned All-Pac-12 Conference accolades highlighted by first-team selections quarterback Gardner Minshew II and left tackle Andre Dillard, the 12 selections are the most since 2003. Senior defensive lineman Logan Tago and redshirt-freshman right tackle Abraham Lucas were both named to the second team. Eight received honorable mention; redshirt-sophomore punter Oscar Draguicevich III, redshirt-freshman kick returner Travell Harris, junior center Frederick Mauigoa, graduate senior linebacker Peyton Pelluer, junior safety Jalen Thompson, redshirt-junior running back James Williams, redshirt-junior special teams player Kainoa Wilson and redshirt-sophomore Jahad Woods.

12 EARN PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS

Twelve Cougar football student-athletes earned Pac-12 Conference All-Academic accolades, the twelve selections are the most in program history. To be eligible for selection to the academic team, a student-athlete must have a minimum 3.0 overall grade-point average and appear in at least 50 percent of their team's games. Redshirt-senior nose tackle Taylor Comfort was named to the first team and three were named to the second team, redshirt-sophomore running back Clay Markoff, redshirt-senior defensive lineman Nick Begg, redshirt-junior defensive lineman Karson Block and graduate senior linebacker Peyton Pelluer. Seven received honorable mention; redshirt-junior wide receiver Brandon Arconado, redshirt-junior defensive lineman Tristan Brock, redshirt-sophomore kicker Jack Crane, redshirt-freshman linebacker Cole Dubots, redshirt-freshman kick returner Travell Harris, redshirt-sophomore offensive lineman Liam Ryan and redshirt-junior quarterback Trey Tinsley.

MIKE LEACH AMONG NATION'S BEST

Mike Leach is in his 17th season as a head coach and owns a 132-83 career record including a 48-40 mark at WSU, now in his seventh season in Pullman.

- Leach's 48 wins at WSU, 3rd-most in school history, Mike Price (1989-2002) is 2nd with 83 and O.E. Hollingberry (1926-42) owns the school-record with 93
- Leach is the 1st Cougar head coach in school history to lead WSU to four straight bowl games
- Leach is now tied with Mike Price for the most bowl appearances with 5
- Leach was the 2015 Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year and 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year
- Leach has been named a George Munger Coach of the Year semifinalist (2016, 2017, 2018)
- WSU has led the Pac-12 in passing in 5 of Leach's 6 seasons, only finishing 2nd behind Cal (Jared Goff) in 2013
- WSU has led the nation in passing twice under Leach (2014, 2015)

FRIENDLY CONFINES OF MARTIN STADIUM

Washington State saw its 13-game home winning streak snapped in the Apple Cup, the third-longest home winning streak in program history and at the time, was tied for the 5th-longest active streak in the country. WSU went 6-1 at home in 2018 after going a program-best 7-0 last season.

17 SENIORS SET FOR FINAL GAME

17 seniors will be playing their final game in the crimson and gray at the Valero Alamo Bowl. The 2018 senior class owns a WSU-record 36 wins, breaking the 2004 senior class record of 35 wins. Nick Begg (DL), Kyle Celli (LS), Taylor Comfort (DL), Solomon Cooper (RB), Hunter Dale (DB), Andre Dillard (OL), Kingston Fernandez (DL), Sean Harper Jr. (CB), Keith Harrington (RB), Robert Lewis (WR), Gardner Minshew II (QB), Darrien Molton (CB), Chima Onyeukwu (RUSH), Peyton Pelluer (LB), Kyle Sweet (WR), Logan Tago (DL), Robert Valencia (OL).

PELLUER NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Linebacker Peyton Pelluer was named a semifinalist for the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame announced. Pelluer is one of 179 semifinalists for the award that recognizes the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Pelluer earned his bachelor's degree in history in 2017 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in teaching. The Sammamish, Wash. native is a five-time member of the WSU President's Honor Roll, a two-time CoSIDA All-Academic District VIII First Team and a four-time Pac-12 Conference All-Academic selection, once to the first team and twice to the second team. The NFF will announce 12-14 finalists Oct. 31, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the 60th NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class.

SIX FORMER WALK-ONS EARN SCHOLARSHIPS

This past summer, the Cougars awarded scholarships to six former walk-ons. (stats prior to 2018)

Brandon Arconado (WR, RS-Jr.)	4 REC, 1 TD, Pac-12 All-Academic 2nd Team
Tristan Brock (LB, RS-Jr.) 24 G	P, special teams, 2x Pac-12 All-Academic HM

Trey Tinsley (QB, RS-Jr.) holder on	FG all 2017 season, Pac-12 All-Academic HM

17 COUGS EARN DEGREES

All 17 members of the 2018 senior class will earn their degree by Summer, 2019. Six players already own bachelor's degrees (Nick Begg, Taylor Comfort, Andre Dillard, Robert Lewis, Gardner Minshew II, Peyton Pelluer) with two, Minshew II and Pelluer pursuing master's degrees. Five more players will complete their degree this fall, four more will finish in the spring and two more will finish next summer. All 19 members of last year's 2017 senior class will have earned their degree by the end of the current fall, 2018 semester.

POLYNESIAN PIPELINE

The Washington State roster has seen an influx in Polynesian players since Mike Leach and his coaching staff arrived in 2012. The 2018 roster has 10 players who are of Polynesian decent including five from Hawaii, two from American Samoa and one from Australia.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Last season, four Cougars shared a unique bond with their dads and/or grandpa who also had worn the crimson a gray. The 2018 roster features three Cougs who's dad's also played at WSU. Left tackle Andre Dillard's dad, Mitch was an offensive lineman and tight end for the Cougars in the late 1980's; linebacker Peyton Pelluer's dad, Scott also played linebacker for the Cougs, matching Peyton's No. 47 from 1977-80; Peyton's grandpa, Arnie played end for WSU in the mid 1950's and his great grandpa, Carl Gustafson, played flanker in the 1920's; and quarterback John Bledsoe's dad, Drew Bledsoe played at WSU from 1990-92, was the No. 1 overall pick by the New England Patriots in the 1993 NFL Draft and played 14 seasons.

WSU ADDS PAIR FROM "LAST CHANCE U"

Washington State signed a pair of players from Independence Community College who was featured on the latest season of "Last Chance U" on Netflix. Junior wideout Calvin Jackson Jr. played two seasons at ICC, leading the team with four touchdown catches last season before signing with the Cougars in February whole sophomore safety Chad Davis Jr. played just one season, recording 15 tackles and three pass breakups at ICC.

THOMPSON NAMED TO BEDNARIK AWARD WATCH LIST

Junior safety Jalen Thompson was named to the 2018 Bednarik Award Watch List, presented annually to the College Defensive Player of the Year. Thompson was one of nine Pac-12 Conference players named to watch list. Thompson was an All-Pac-12 second-team selection last season after leading the Cougars with 73 tackles and tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with four interceptions.

MAUIGOA NAMED TO RIMINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST, POLYNESIAN PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Junior center Frederick Mauigoa was named to a pair of watch lists over prior to the season, the Rimington Trophy Fall Watch List, presented annually to the most outstanding center in Division I College Football and the Polynesian Player of the Year. Mauigoa was one of 58 centers named to the Rimington Trophy list and is one of 10 from the Pac-12. Riley Sorenson was named to the same watch list prior to the 2016 season. Mauigoa started all 13 games at center last season, anchoring the line that blocked for the nation's second-best passing attack.

PELLUER NAMED MAYO CLINIC COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR NOMINEE

The College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) in association with The Associated Press (AP) and the Fiesta Bowl organization selected Peyton Pelluer as a Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award Nominees. The Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year recognizes the student-athlete from all levels of college football who have overcome injury, illness or other challenges. Pelluer, a 6th-year senior linebacker, was a two-year starter at MIKE linebacker heading into the 2017 season before suffering a navicular fracture in his foot in the third game. He was granted a medical redshirt to return this year. The Sammamish, Washington native picked up right where he left off, recording five 10+ tackle games against USC, Utah, Oregon State, Cal and Washington. For the season he leads the Cougars with 87 tackles including nine tackles for a loss, 3.5 sacks, three passes defended, a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

WELCOME BACK LEWIS, PELLUER

The Cougars welcomef back a couple of major contributors for a sixth season. Senior linebacker Peyton Pelluer and senior wide receiver Robert Lewis (118 career receptions) were both granted a sixth-year by the NCAA during the offseason. Lewis missed all of 2017 after suffering a knee injury prior to the season and Pelluer played in the first three games before a foot injury ended his 2017 campaign. Both have earned their bachelor's degrees with Lewis working towards another political science major and Pelluer working on his second year pursing a master's in teaching.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

The 2018 Cougar coaching staff features four new faces and three familiar faces who moved to different roles. Former Minnesota head coach Tracy Claeys arrives to serve as the defensive coordinator, Matt Brock arrives from Bowling Green to serve as the Special Teams coach and outside linebackers coach, Darcel McBrath assumes a full-time assistant position working with the cornerbacks after spending last season as a defensive quality control, Eric Mele worked the previous two and half seasons as the Cougars special teams coach but as moved to coach the Cougar running backs in 2018, Kendrick Shaver arrives from Utah State to coach the Safeties, former Western Kentucky assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach Steve Spurrier Jr. arrived to coach the Cougar outside receivers and Tyson Brown returns as the head strength and conditioning coach after a brief stint at Elon College. Brown had served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cougars the previous four seasons.

PATRICK CHUN NAMED DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Washington State University President Kirk Schulz selected Patrick Chun as the WSU Director of Athletics, it was announced Jan. 22, 2018. Chun is the 14th individul to lead Cougar athletics in school history and began his duties Feb. 5. "This is a game-changing day for our athletics program," said WSU President Kirk Schulz. "We were focused on finding a leader with the right blend of experience, vision, and passion to lead Cougar athletics to the next level of success. In Pat, we're confident we found that person. His achievements in fundraising, boosting the academic success rate of student athletes, and building strong relationships with the community—on- and off-campus—are exemplary." Chun, 43, is the first Asian-American athletic director to lead a Power 5 school and continues President Schulz' drive to diversify his senior leadership team. He has spent the past five and a half years leading Florida Atlantic University athletics and the previous 15 years at Ohio State University in a multitude of roles from 1997 through 2012, culminating as the executive associate athletics director.

STEVE GLEASON RECRUIT SUITE IN COUGAR FOOTBALL COMPLEX

In fall, 2016, WSU announced the naming of the Steve Gleason Recruit Suite, inside the Cougar Football Complex. Gleason, the Washington State Athletic Hall of Famer who played football and baseball in a Cougar uniform from 1995-99, was on hand as the room all future Cougar football players will walk through was named in his honor. The opportunity arrived courtesy of Cougar alumnus Glenn Osterhout's naming donation of $250,000. With his pledge, Osterhout, a 1983 graduate who is a certified financial planner in Bellevue, was presented the opportunity to name the recruiting room inside the Cougar Football Complex.

JASON HANSON NAMED TO COSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HALL OF FAME

Jason Hanson was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame this past summer. Hanson became the first student-athlete in school history to receive this honor, entering the hall of fame along with Tennessee football player Peyton Manning, Florida International baseball player Mike Lowell and San Jose State basketball and track and field athlete Dr. Harry Edwards. Hanson, a pre-med major, was a three-time Academic All-American during his four years in Pullman (1988-91) and concluded his senior season by being named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, one of only five in WSU history to receive the honor. The Spokane, Wash. native, Hanson was an All-American kicker and punter for the Cougars, earning Freshman All-America honors as a kicker in 1988 and later became WSU's first unanimous first team All-American as a sophomore in 1989. As a junior, he was named All-Pac-10 as both a punter and kicker and earned All-American honors as a punter that season. As a senior in 1991, he was named an All-American at both punter and kicker. Hanson finished his WSU career with 19 field goals of 50+ yards including a Pac-10 record 62-yarder, the longest without use of a tee in NCAA Division I history. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 1992 NFL draft and played 21 seasons with the Lions, earning Pro Bowl honors twice, second team All-Pro honors in 1997 and was a first team All-Pro selection in 1993. Upon his retirement, Hanson held the NFL record for career 50-yard kicks (52) and was inducted into the WSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001 and the Lions Ring of Honor in 2013.

HALL OF FAMER BOB ROBERTSON ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

Washington State's legendary hall of fame announcer Bob Robertson announced Oct. 15 that he is retiring from the Cougar broadcasting booth, effective immediately. "I've been with the Cougars a lot of years, more than half a century, calling basketball, football for the fans around the Northwest and elsewhere around the country and I've enjoyed every minute of it," said Robertson. "But as of this moment, I've asked the athletic department at Washington State University to list me as a retired, former sportscaster for the Cougars," Robertson continued. "It is a matter of getting old is what it is. Everything seems to move a lot faster around me, I move more slowly. I hope to see you soon, I'm not going to go away. I like Washington State people and the school itself too much to do that. But I am going to be on the retired list, starting immediately." Robertson was in his 52nd year calling Cougar athletics, serving as the play-by-play voice from 1964-2011, then moving over to the analyst chair for the past seven seasons. He began his association with WSU football in 1964 and with the exception of a three-year period from 1969-71, has been a member of WSU's broadcast crew ever since. He was behind the mic for 589 Cougar games, including 568 consecutive broadcasts from 1964-2016, the lone exception being the 1981 Holiday Bowl when local radio was not permitted to broadcast. He has been behind the mic for many magical moments and seasons of Cougar football, including the Cardiac Kids, the Palouse Posse, the Fab Five, the 1981 Holiday Bowl, WSU's first bowl game in 50 years, as well as the 1998 and 2002 Rose Bowls. Additionally, he called Rueben Mayes' 357-yard rushing game at Oregon, the 1992 Snow Bowl, 54 Apple Cups (including the three while calling games at Washington) and worked alongside 10 head coaches. Robertson has had a legendary career, having been selected Washington Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, was inducted into both the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Hall of Fame in 2001-02, and in August 2004 received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award at ceremonies held at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. As much as Robertson is part of Cougar Football Saturday, so is his closing broadcast signature, "Always be a good sport, be a good sport all ways."

Among his many accomplishments, Robertson has:

- Spent three decades calling Pacific Coast League baseball in Seattle and Tacoma
- Had his "cup of coffee" in major league baseball, broadcasting some Seattle Mariner games in the late 1990's
- Long-time voice of the Spokane Indians baseball team and Pacific Lutheran University basketball
- Served as the television voice of Notre Dame football and basketball for two years in the 1950's.

COUGAR FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

Matt Chazanow is in his fourth season as the play-by-play voice for Cougar football, men's basketball and baseball broadcasts. Joining Chazanow for his first season will be former Cougar quarterback Alex Brink who is the only WSU quarterback to win three Apple Cups and was later a seventh-round draft pick by the Houston Texans. Returning for her seventh season as the sideline reporter is Jessamyn McIntyre, an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle.

WASHINGTON STATE AT WYOMING

Sept. 1, 2018 • War Memorial Stadium • Att.: 24,131 • TV: CBS Sports Network

LARAMIE, Wyo. - Washington State's starting quarterback wasn't publicly known until the offense took the field Saturday against Wyoming. But graduate transfer Gardner Minshew knew he was the starter and responded by throwing for 319 yards and three touchdowns as the Cougars gained a 41-19 season-opening win over the Cowboys. Minshew, who transferred from East Carolina, completed 38 of 57 attempts. He had TD passes of 2 yards to James Williams, 6 yards to Max Borghi and 7 yards to Easop Winston. Minshew threw one interception. Cougar coach Mike Leach had kept his starting quarterback a secret until the game started, but Minshew said after the game that he knew he was the starter a couple of weeks ago. Williams rushed 16 times for 82 yards and one score for Washington State (1-0). He also caught 10 passes for 53 yards. Washington State trailed at halftime but the Cougars scored touchdowns on four of its five possessions in the second half. "I thought the first half we were trying to do too much, focusing on trying to be perfect," Leach said. Leach said Minshew was "slow at delivering the ball" but was more decisive in the second half. Minshew said the offense simply did a better job in the second half. "The receivers caught the ball better," he said. "I was making better decisions." Wyoming (1-1) was led by Nico Evans, who ran for 89 yards and a touchdown before leaving the game during the Cowboys' first series of the second half because of an unspecified rib injury. The Cowboys offense was limited to 206 total yards, including just 67 passing yards. Wyoming led 16-13 at the half but managed only a 30-yard field goal in the second half. The Cowboys hurt themselves with penalties, committing 13 infractions for 109 yards. If you're going to play against a good team, you can't shoot yourself in the foot, and I think we did that," Wyoming coach Craig Bohl said. "The margin for doing that is pretty slim, and we didn't get it done." THE TAKEWAY Washington State: Entered the game having lost seven straight season-openers played on the road. The Cougars' last season-opening win on the road was in 2004 when they beat New Mexico 21-17. Wyoming: The Cowboys have lost 13 straight games against Power 5 conference opponents. Their last victory against a Power 5 team was in 2007 when they beat Tennessee 13-7. SLOW START Wyoming's offense struggled early on against the Cougar defense. The Cowboys had no first downs and just 9 total yards in the first quarter. Tyler Vander Waal, who attempted four passes in the first quarter, didn't complete his first pass until Wyoming's first possession of the second quarter.

SAN JOSE STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 8, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 26,141 • TV: Pac-12 Network

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State beat San Jose State 31-0 on Saturday night, but that doesn't mean Cougars' coach Mike Leach was happy with his team. "I was not impressed with our second half," Leach said, after the Cougars managed just one touchdown after halftime. "We were too soft," Leach said, especially at running back. "We could get a fast seventh grader and hit the hole as hard as we did." "We need a complete game," Leach said. Leach did acknowledge that the shutout was "a fantastic effort" by the defense. Actually, the Cougars looked pretty good in piling up 544 yards while holding the Spartans to 109. San Jose State punted 11 times. Gardner Minshew threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score during an emotional night that began with a brief tribute to deceased WSU quarterback Tyler Hilinski. Tay Martin caught a pair of touchdown passes for Washington State (2-0), a five-touchdown favorite in the game. Minshew completed 34 of 51 passes for 414 yards. Quarterback Montel Aaron led a Spartan offense that sputtered much of the game. San Jose State (0-2) was coming off a loss to a Football Championship Series team at home last week. San Jose State coach Brent Brennan said his team needs to improve. "To win the turnover battle 3-1 and to get beat like that just tells you we have got a lot of work to do," Brennan said. "Obviously they built quite a program here and I give them lots of credit." Martin caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from Minshew to cap Washington State's first possession. On fourth and 10, Minshew fired a 36-yard scoring pass to a wide-open Martin down the left sideline for a 14-0 lead. "They hit a couple deep balls, we were in a couple situations where we were trying to bring some pressure, trying to get the quarterback off his spot," Brennan said. Blake Mazza kicked a 36-yard field goal for a 17-0 WSU lead. Minshew rushed over from the 1 as time expired in the first half, giving Washington State a 24-0 lead. San Jose State was held to 23 yards and two first downs in the first half, while Washington State piled up 316 yards. James Williams caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Minshew late in the fourth This was the first WSU home game since Hilinski took his own life last January. The program is remembering Hilinski, who was the presumptive starter for this season, by wearing decals with his No. 3 on their helmets, and maintaining his locker. Hilinski's parents and two brothers raised the Cougar flag prior to the game. A suicide prevention video played on the scoreboard prior to the game.

EASTERN WASHINGTON AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 15, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 32,952 • TV: Pac-12 Network

PULLMAN, Wash - Graduate transfer quarterback Gardner Minshew didn't start playing with his Washington State teammates until fall drills, but you wouldn't know it from his production. Minshew threw for 470 yards and two touchdowns as Washington State beat Eastern Washington 59-24 on Saturday night to avenge a 2016 loss to its FCS neighbor. "We have a bunch of new receivers and a new quarterback," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "All of it is tuning into one another." "Those guys are getting tuned in together," Leach said. Tay Martin caught 13 passes for 149 yards for Washington State (3-0), which piled up 565 yards of offense. Gage Gubrud threw three touchdown passes but was intercepted three times for Eastern Washington (2-1), which upset the Cougars 45-42 in Pullman in 2016. Eastern Washington came in leading the FCS with an average of 623 yards per game, but was limited to 372 yards. Minshew, who played for East Carolina last year, completed 45 of 57 passes, two for touchdowns, and was not intercepted. "It's awesome," Minshew said of throwing 57 times. "It's so much fun." "We are getting better as an offense each week," Minshew said. James Williams rushed for three Washington State touchdowns, despite getting just six total carries. "We've just got to make plays when we get opportunities," Williams said. Despite the final score, this one was close for three quarters. "We counter-punched at times," Eastern Washington coach Aaron Best said. "We just didn't have enough juice in our counter punches. We turned the ball over four times." "We shot ourselves in the foot," Best said. Jalen Thompson intercepted a Gubrud pass to give the Cougars the ball on their own 32. James Williams punched the ball over from the 1 to give Washington State a 7-0 lead. Minshew's 14-yard touchdown pass to Easop Winston Jr. lifted Washington State to a 14-0 lead. Eastern Washington drove to Washington State's 19, but had to settle for Roldan Alcobendas' 37-yard field goal. Travell Harris ran the subsequent kickoff back 100 yards for a touchdown. Gubrud was intercepted near the goal line by Darrien Molton. Washington State drove 98 yards, and Williams plowed over from the 2 for a 28-3 lead. But the Eagles were not going away. Gubrud fired a 26-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Boston to cut Washington State's halftime lead to 28-10. On the opening drive of the second half, Gubrud hit a wide-open Zach Eagle for a 34-yard touchdown pass to cut WSU's lead to 28-17. Minshew completed seven consecutive passes as the Cougars drove from their 1 to the EWU 8. Williams covered that distance for his third touchdown and a 35-17 lead. Gubrud replied with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Dennis Merritt to bring the Eagles within 35-24. Gubrud was intercepted late in the third by Jahad Woods, giving the Cougars possession on Eastern's 27. But they had to settle for Blake Mazza's 44-yard field goal. Minshew hit Martin with a 21-yard touchdown pass for a 45-24 lead with 9:47 left in the game and the Eagles did not threaten again. THE TAKEAWAY Eastern Washington: Coming into this game, the Eagles had won three of their past eight games against FBS opponents. They clearly belonged on the field with the Cougars for most of this game. Washington State: Washington State's Air Raid offense gave the Cougars an early lead the Eagles could not overcome. Leach said his team played well in all three phases of the game. "We played kind of a complete game," Leach said. ARE WE THERE YET? Washington State had drives of 99 and 98 yards in the game. BEVY OF RECEIVERS In addition to Martin, Washington State's Jamire Calvin caught six passes for 70 yards. Winston caught six passes for 42 yards and Dezmon Patmon caught five for 57. GAUGING GAGE Gubrud had a huge game against the Cougars in 2016, throwing for five touchdowns and running for another. This time not so much. He completed just 14 of 36 passes for 231 vards. Zach Eagle caught four of the passes for 73 yards.

WASHINGTON STATE AT USC

Sept. 21, 2018 • Memorial Coliseum • Att.: 52,421 • TV: ESPN

LOS ANGELES - Southern California trailed by 13 points in the second half, and the smallish Coliseum crowd grumbled at the prospect of an already shaky season slipping away entirely from this powerhouse program. Right before the Trojans really got in trouble, they started making big plays. And when Jay Tufele slipped into the perfect spot and got his big arm up to block a field goal, USC's season was back on track. J.T. Daniels passed for 241 yards and three touchdowns, and Tufele blocked Washington State's attempt at a tying field goal with 1:41 to play in USC's 18th consecutive home victory, 39-36 Friday night. After back-to-back road losses to Stanford and Texas put the Trojans in dire September straits, the Trojans (2-2, 1-1 Pac-12) fell behind the Cougars early, but made a series of big stops and slick adjustments down the stretch to remain unbeaten at the Coliseum under coach Clay Helton. None was bigger than the special-teams call on the Cougars' last field goal attempt, allowing Tufele to get in an ideal position for the block. "The kids knew exactly what to do," Helton said. "Our last team meeting, we showed it. We showed the gap that would be open. It was the absolute perfect call at the right time." One year after the Trojans took their first loss of last season in a Friday night game in Pullman, USC showed resilience and fourth-quarter tenacity while avoiding a disastrous start to the season. Vavae Malepeai rushed for his second touchdown with 8:03 to play as USC rallied from two scores down in the second half and eventually held off the Cougars (3-1, 0-1). "I've always thought that adversity kind of defines who you are," Helton said. "Being in that second half down two scores, a bunch of great kids defined who they are as men, and I can't tell you how proud I am of them." Gardner Minshew passed for 344 yards and three touchdowns in the new quarterback's latest strong performance for Washington State, while James Williams and Max Borghi rushed for scores. Easop Winston caught his second TD pass from Minshew with 10:15 to go, but the Trojans responded with a 56-yard scoring drive. After Malepeai's go-ahead TD and Daniels' pinpoint 2-point conversion pass to Tyler Vaughns, Washington State drove into field goal range in the waning minutes. That's where Tufele swatted down Blake Mazza's 38-yard attempt with relative ease. "Looked like they got a pretty good push, and it looked like we struck it low," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "I thought we played pretty good. We played pretty hard across the board. I think our effort is great. We've got to become a more consistent team." The Trojans' special teams have made several significant mistakes this season, but the unit executed flawlessly at the biggest moment and then celebrated wildly The Cougars led 24-17 at halftime, and they opened the second half with a 75-yard drive capped by Borghi's 13-yard TD run before the Trojans finally responded. Pittman, whose exceptional catch shortly before halftime was ruled just out of bounds, took a 50-yard pass to the house. USC's defense stiffened and forced two punts before St. Brown's gorgeous TD catch and the extra point put the Trojans up 31-30. "We left too many drives out there," said Minshew, who went 37 for 52 without an interception. "That was all on me." But Winston immediately caught a 59-yard pass down the middle and followed it up with a 4-yard TD catch. Washington State's 2-point conversion attempt failed, and the Cougars didn't score again. COLISEUM CROWD The weekday attendance of 52,421 was USC's smallest for a home game since 2001, but was still bigger than many expected for the school's first Friday home game since 1999.

UTAH AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 29, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 30,088 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

PULLMAN, Wash - Easop Winston Jr. caught the football over his shoulder, made a couple of sweet moves to shed a defender, and completed an 89-yard touchdown play that lifted Washington State to a 28-24 victory over Utah on Saturday. Winston said he could hear the roar of the crowd as he made the catch late in the fourth quarter, and had only one thought on his mind. "I just had to get in the end zone," Winston said. "Just get in the end zone." After Winston scored with 4:14 left in the game, Utah had one last chance to score. But the Utes turned the ball over on downs after a penalty-plaqued possession and Washington State won its 10th consecutive home game. Washington State (4-1, 1-1 Pac-12) shredded the nation's No. 1 defense for 445 total yards. Utah (2-2, 0-2) was coming off a bye week. The Utes defense came in allowing just 12.3 points and 204 yards per game. Washington State quarterback Gardner Minshew completed 31 of 56 passes for three touchdowns and one interception. He also ran for a touchdown. "This game was all about resiliency," Minshew said, after the Cougars were shut out for most of the second half. Minshew said he saw that Winston, who caught four passes for 115 yards, drew just one defender on the play that produced the winning touchdown. "I saw they were one on one with a guy who is pretty much unguardable one on one," Minshew said. After the catch, "I was waiting for him to get caught and he never did," Minshew said. Utah only managed to score one field goal in the second half. "Our defense studded up in the second half," Utah coach Kyle Whittingham said. "One big play and that was obviously the back breaker." "We did a lot of positive things that were negated by penalties", he said. "This team has a lot of character, a lot of heart," Whittingham said. "They'll come back ready to go to work on Monday." Washington State marched to the Utah 17 on the opening drive, but Minshew was intercepted by Corrion Ballard near the end zone to end the scoring threat. On the ensuing series, Utah's Britain Covey appeared to fumble after catching a pass and the ball was recovered by Washington State. But safety Skyler Thomas was called for targeting and ejected from the game and Utah retained the ball at midfield. Quarterback Tyler Huntley ran up the middle for 24 yards and a 7-0 Utah lead. Minshew threw a short touchdown pass to Tay Martin on the next series to tie the score. Zach Moss ran for a 6-yard touchdown to put Utah ahead. Minshew bootlegged 10 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 14-14. After Utah's first punt, Minshew fired a 65-yard touchdown pass to a streaking Dezmon Patmon, who caught the ball near midfield and ran untouched into the end zone. Utah tied the score at 21-21 on Huntley's 1-yard plunge, and that stood at halftime. The defenses took over in the second half. Matt Gay kicked a 41-yard field goal on the first possession of the third to put Utah ahead 24-21. Blake Mazza tried a 52-yard field goal on the next series for WSU, but it was blocked by Maxs Tupai. In the fourth, Minshew lofted an 89-yard touchdown pass to Winston to take a 28-24 lead with 4:14 left. Utah turned the ball over on downs with 50 seconds left when Huntley's pass fell short on fourth-and-20. THE TAKEAWAY Utah:
The Utes' slumbering offense woke up, but the defense could not stop WSU's Air Raid in the first half. "It doesn't get any easier with a road trip to Stanford," Whittingham said of the next game. Washington State: Washington State has won 10 straight home games, dating to its latest home loss in 2016. It's the Cougars' longest streak since winning nine in a row from 1941-46 (there was no football in 1943-44 because of the war). "Protecting our home is one of our big things," said WSU defensive lineman Will Rodgers. UTAH RUNS Utah running back Zack Moss rushed for 106 yards and quarterback Huntley ran for 88 yards. But the Utes managed only 118 yards through the air. PERFECT PEYTON Washington State linebacker Peyton Pelluer led all players with 13 tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss. The sack was huge, forcing Utah to punt on its second-to-last possession. "It was a special feeling," Pelluer said. "Hearing the crowd erupt."

WASHINGTON STATE AT OREGON STATE

Oct. 6, 2018 • Reser Stadium • Att.: 34,429 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

CORVALLIS, Ore. - When Washington State fell behind on Saturday, the Cougars' offense responded, and that's part of the team's mindset, said quarterback Gardner Minshew II. "Any time our backs are to the wall, we're going to come out swinging," Minshew added, Minshew threw for 430 yards and five touchdowns as Washington State scored 28 straight second half points to beat Oregon State 56-37 on Saturday night. Tay Martin had 119 yards receiving and two touchdowns and James Williams added 134 yards from scrimmage and a receiving touchdown for the Cougars (5-1, 2-1 Pac-12). "We have a bunch of guys who can make plays, and I trust any of them in one-on-ones," Minshew said. Washington State Coach Mike Leach said Minshew has room for improvement this season. "He continues to get better as the receivers get used to him. The receivers around him are young guys," Leach added. Jermar Jefferson rushed for 139 yards and four touchdowns for the Beavers (1-5, 0-3). "We gave it all out there, but it's not quite good enough," Oregon State coach Jonathan Smith said. "We're playing good teams and we can't get over the hump." Oregon State hasn't been able to stop the run lately, but Washington State stuck to its strengths - the Air Raid offense and Minshew's arm - to pull away in the second half. Washington State stormed out to a 14-0 lead in less than two-and-a-half minutes, thanks in part to a blocked punt that was recovered for a touchdown. But Oregon State tied things up before the end of the first quarter, scoring its second touchdown after a muffed punt by the Cougars. The Cougars led 28-24 at the break, but trailed 30-28 after Oregon State scored first in the second half. Washington State responded with two touchdowns, and led 42-30 early in the fourth quarter. The Beavers appeared poised to respond, but the Washington State defense forced a fumble from Jefferson that was recovered in the end zone. The Cougars pounced on the opportunity, and an 80-yard drive was capped by a 27-yard touchdown pass to Martin with 9:06 remaining. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew entered Saturday leading the nation in passing yards per game (398.4). He has thrown for more than 300 yards in every contest this season. The Cougars likely improved their chances to move into the Top 25. Washington State received votes in last week's poll, and the team's only loss was by three points at Southern California on Sept. 21. Oregon State: Quarterback Conor Blount left the game about midway through the fourth quarter with an injury and did not return. Jefferson, a true freshman, scored his 12th touchdown of the season. TRICKERATION: The Beavers broke out numerous trick plays, including an unsuccessful onside kick that resembled a soccer cross and a kickoff returner camouflaging himself in the end zone by lying face down, getting lateraled the ball and going for 55 yards. "Usually when you have that many in your bag you don't end up connecting with that many, but they did," Leach said. MORE THAN ZERO: The Cougars had a grand total of zero yards rushing last week against Utah, and Williams said that motivated players. "We felt like this week, we had an opportunity," he added. The Cougars finished with 17 rushes for 62 yards, 46 of them by Williams.

NO. 12 OREGON AT NO. 25 WASHINGTON STATE Oct. 20. 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 33.152 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash – Gardner Minshew threw a 22-yard touchdown pass to Dezmon Patmon in the back of the end zone with 3:40 left and No. 25 Washington State beat No. 12 Oregon 34-20 on Saturday night. The Cougars (6-1, 3-1 Pac-12) capped one of the biggest days in program history by taking control of the North Division race. Washington State hosted ESPN's "College Gameday" and later celebrated its fourth straight victory over Oregon (6-1, 3-1). Minshew was 39 of 51 for 323 yards and four touchdowns. "We want to be in a position to control our own destiny," Minshew said. Down 27-0 at the half, Oregon pulled to 27-20 on Adam Stack's 23-yard field goal with 6:38 left. The Cougars got a huge play on the next drive from Travell Harris when he stole a pass from Oregon's Jevon Holland for a 37-yard gain into Oregon territory. Minshew then hit Harris for 11 yards to convert fourth-and-6 and, two plays later, Minshew hit Patmon for the touchdown that finally put away the Ducks. "Travell he's a competitor," Minshew said. "He wasn't going to let him take it. He fought for me." Minshew had a pass intercepted by cornerback Deommodore Lenoir to start the game after driving deep into Oregon territory. Minshew and the Cougars then went on a tear, pulling away to the big halftime lead. Washington State scored on its second possession on James Williams' 24-yard run. Williams bounced off several defenders and stiff-armed his way to the sideline. Minshew found wide receiver Renard Bell for a 16-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter, and added two more strikes in the final three minutes of the half - a 6-yarder to Easop Winston Jr. and a 15-yarder to Max Borghi. Justin Herbert was 25 of 44 for 270 yards and a TD for Oregon. "Any time you play like that in the first half, you're not gonna win many ballgames," Herbert said. HET AKEAWAY Oregon: A week after knocking off Washington a tome in overtime, the Ducks were flat in the first half and unable to overcome such a large deficit. With two conference losses, Oregon will need help the North Division race. Washington State: The Cougars four-game win streak against the Ducks is their longest since the early 1980s. Washington State has a clear path to the North Division title, but will face road tests at Stanford and Colorado,

NO. 14 WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 24 STANFORD

Oct. 27, 2018 • Stanford Stadium • Att.: 39,596 • TV: Pac-12 Networks

STANFORD, Calif. - Gardner Minshew completed his first 19 passes of the second half and drove No. 14 Washington State to a 42-yard field goal by Blake Mazza with 19 seconds remaining to put the Cougars in sole possession of first place in the Pac-12 North with a 41-38 victory over No. 24 Stanford on Saturday. "We want the ball to come to us," Minshew said. "We want to have the chance to make the play to win the game. ... We knew if we got the chance, we could win it for us." Minshew completed 40 of 50 passes for 438 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cougars (7-1, 4-1 Pac-12) to their third straight win over the Cardinal (5-3, 3-2). This victory follows last week's over then-No. 12 Oregon, giving Washington State back-to-back wins over ranked opponents for the first time since 2002. Minshew engineered the winning drive in the final 1:25 with the big play coming on a 35-yard pass to Jamire Calvin on third-and-2 from the 33. Minshew completed one more pass to move the ball to the 25 and after two incomplete passes, Mazza made his kick to win it in his first try at a game-winner at any level. "It's exhilarating and it's awesome," Mazza said. "Those are the two things that describe that moment. Only a certain amount of people can experience that in sports." With No. 15 Washington losing at California, the Cougars head into the final month of the season alone in first place in the conference and remain the only one-loss team in the Pac-12. K.J. Costello threw a game-tying 25-yard touchdown pass to JJ Arcega-Whiteside with 1:25 to play but it wasn't enough to prevent Stanford from losing for the third time in four games. Washington State trailed by 14 points late in the first half before rallying behind Minshew for the win. He led them to three TDs on the first four drives of the second half, using his legs and arm to knock off the Cardinal. Minshew scrambled on a key drive in the fourth quarter for 4 yards on third-and-5, nearly performing a flip out of bounds as he fought for the marker. He then converted the fourth down with a keeper, setting up a go-ahead 3-yard TD pass to Renard Bell. "It was a little bit like doing surgery with chain saws out there for both sides," Cougars coach Mike Leach said. "You just have to stick in it. You never know what's going to happen in a football game." The Cardinal had been stopped on a fourth-and-3 from the 32 on the previous drive with Dominick Silvels stopping Bryce Love for a 1-yard loss on a short pass from K.J. Costello. That was one of the few mistakes Costello made all day as he threw for 323 yards and four touchdowns, including two to Arcega-Whiteside. "Learned a couple lessons," coach David Shaw said. "It's hard. You can't check the ball down on fourth-and-(3), unless the check down is beyond the first-down marker. That was a tough play." THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: After last week's emotional home win over Oregon, the Cougars didn't have a letdown despite falling behind 28-14 late in the first half. Minshew led a 69-yard field-goal drive in the final 1:04 of the second quarter and the Cougars then got a second TD run by James Williams on the opening drive of the second half. They tied it early in the fourth on a 7-yard pass from Minshew to Tay Martin. Stanford: The Cardinal have turned into a pass-first team, throwing 43 times compared to 23 runs with some of those coming on sacks and scrambles. Love broke one long run for 43 yards but had just four more carries for 10 yards. Arcega-Whiteside had 10 catches for 111 yards, Kaden Smith had nine catches for 112 yards and a TD and Houston Heimuli also caught a touchdown pass.

CALIFORNIA AT NO. 10 WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 4, 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 32,952 • TV: ESPN

PULLMAN, Wash. - California shut down No. 10 Washington State's vaunted Air Raid offense for most of Saturday's game, but the Bears could not quite close the deal. Gardner Minshew threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Easop Winston Jr. with 32 seconds left to lift Washington State to a 19-13 win over California, extending WSU's long-shot quest to crash the College Football Playoff. "I thought that it would be a war and it was," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. "We hung in there, kept our composure and did it." Minshew completed 35 of 51 passes for 334 yards for Washington State (8-1, 5-1 Pac-12, No. 8 CFP), which is also seeking its first Pac-12 North title. The Cougars have a 12-game home winning streak, fourth-longest in the nation. Minshew, a graduate transfer, has thrown for at least 300 yards in every game this season. "When we get down there, we expect to score," Minshew said. "We didn't want to kick a field goal." Chase Garbers threw for 127 yards and ran for 67 for Cal (5-4, 2-4). This is Washington State's first 8-1 start since 2002. California kept possession for much of the second half, but managed to score only one field goal in that time. "Losing is awful and we had chances," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "We weren't able to take advantage of them." "We've got to find a few more plays in the game in order to win it," Wilcox said. "That's where we were short, and they made them, so you got to give them credit." Blake Mazza's 29-yard field goal put WSU up 3-0 early in the game. After Evan Weaver intercepted a Minshew pass at the Washington State 39, Garbers threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Malik McMorris to give the Bears a 7-3 lead. Max Borghi replied with a 5-yard touchdown run, capping a 75-yard drive, to put the Cougars ahead 10-7. Greg Thomas hit a 42-yard field goal late in the first half to tie the score at 10-10. Washington State linebacker Dominick Silvels was ejected from the game during the drive for targeting on tight end lan Bunting. Mazza kicked a 36-yard field goal with one second left in the first half to give Washington State a 13-10 lead. Thomas kicked a 46-yard field goal late in the third to tie the score at 13-13. Cal was driving for a go-ahead touchdown when quarterback Brandon McIlwain was intercepted in the end zone by Skyler Thomas midway through the fourth. The Cougars drove to the California 13, where Mazza missed a 30-yard field goal with 3:31 left in the game. "We can't throw it to the other team," Wilcox said of the interception in the end zone. After Cal went three and out, Minshew drove the Cougars 69 yards, ending with a 10-yard touchdown pass to Winston for a 19-13 lead. "He's getting better and better," Leach said of Winston. "He's one of our most improved players without question." Winston caught seven passes for 92 yards. THE TAKEAWAY Cal: The game was a classic showdown between Washington State's Air Raid offense, which is averaging 40.8 points, and a California defense that is the best in the Pac-12 against the pass. Cal managed to play the game on its terms until the very end. Washington State: The Cougars are the only remaining Pac-12 team with a single loss, and the Cougars almost certainly need to win out for a chance at their first playoff bid. RUNNING BEAR Patrick Laird rushed 18 times but netted only 40 yards for California. He also caught four passes for 38 yards. POLL IMPLICATIONS Washington State should expect to move up a spot or two in the Top 25. POINTS PLEASE This is the fewest points Washington State has scored in a game all season. PEYTON'S PLACE Washington State linebacker Peyton Pelluer had 10 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss. "What he does best is he leads and generates energy," Leach said.

NO. 8 WASHINGTON STATE AT COLORADO

Nov. 10, 2018 • Folsum Field • Att.: 45,587 • TV: ESPN

BOULDER, Colo. - The 10th-ranked Washington State Cougars weren't in any hurry to bury the Buffaloes. Gardner Minshew II had all day to pick his targets and he overcame a slow start and three fourth-down failures to lead the Cougars past Colorado 31-7 on Saturday. The Cougars (9-1, 6-1 Pac-12, No. 8 CFP) won their sixth straight, but it wasn't as easy as expected against the Buffaloes (5-5, 2-5), who lost their fifth straight despite the return of star receiver Laviska Shenault Jr. Washington State led by three at the half and seven heading into the fourth quarter. They did dominate the clock, however, winning the time of possession by nearly 24 minutes and holding the Buffaloes to an average drive of just 1:38. "We hogged the ball the whole game," Cougars coach Mike Leach said. "But I thought we could have capitalized on more stuff." "Our defense was getting them off the field really fast, so hats off to them for getting us the ball," Minshew said. Washington State led just 10-7 at the break but linebacker Jahad Woods forced and recovered Travon McMillian's fumble at the Colorado 32 on the second play of the second half and Minshew threw a 1-yard dart to Renard Bell, sparking a 21-0 run that finally buried the Buffs. Minshew, who was hardly pressured all afternoon as Colorado failed to register a single sack for the first time all season, finished 35-of-58 passing for 335 yards and two TDs. "I was off a little bit but I feel like we figured it out in the second half," said Minshew, who made it 24-7 on a 10-yard scramble in the fourth quarter on a drive was kept alive when Buffs safety Aaron Maddox was flagged for taunting Easop Winston on a key third down stop. Instead of fourth-and-9, it was first-and-10. "That was all on me," Maddox said. "I promise you that won't happen again." In the first half, Minshew didn't look anything like the nation's leading passer that he is. After having to burn a timeout before the first snap of the game and another one before the first quarter ended with Washington State still scoreless, the Cougars finally got on the board with a 39-yard field goal. They caught a huge break when linebacker Nate Landman, the Buffs' leading tackler, was ejected for targeting after stuffing Minshew for no gain on a second-and-1 keeper in the second quarter. Minshew ran around his left tackle and was ducking when Landman hit him. "It was a good hit," Minshew said. "But it was a penalty. We're trying to keep players safe and that's what we're doing is throwing a flag when that happens." "Losing Nate's a tough blow," Colorado coach Mike MacIntyre said. "Some of the mistakes we had underneath, he would have made" those plays. Without Landman, who was also ejected Oct. 6 against Arizona State, the Buffs couldn't stop the Cougars from taking a 10-7 halftime lead on running back Max Borghi's 28-yard catch and run. Despite their defense holding an opponent scoreless in the first quarter for the fifth straight game , the Buffs didn't capitalize as much as they could have. They only crossed midfield once in their seven first-half possessions, and that came on McMillian's 64-yard scamper to the 3. He ran it in on the next play for a 7-0 lead. Colorado QB Steven Montez threw for just 67 yards in the first half and finished 20 of 35 for 199 yards and no touchdowns. "It's a huge win, any win on the road in our conference is hard," Leach said. "It's hard going down the path of real quality opponents. In this conference we don't really have any below average opponents they are all above average opponents. This is a huge win for us." SHAKING THE RUST Shenault, who had 11 touchdowns during the Buffs' 5-0 start, was rusty in his return from a right turf toe injury. He caught 10 passes for 102 yards but cost his team dearly with back-to-back drops and a lost fumble. "I was pretty close" to 100 percent, Shenault said. "I'm feeling fine." The Cougars didn't act at all concerned about Laviska's return. "Who's that? No. 2?" Washington State defensive lineman Logan Tago said. "Sorry." THE TAKEAWAY: Washington State: The Cougars took their time burying the Buffaloes, but in the end, it was a solid rout thanks to their great defense and stout offensive line that kept Minshew's jersey laundry-fresh. Colorado: Not even the return of Shenault could kick-start the Buffs, who were still missing wide re $ceivers \ Jay \ MacIntyre \ (concussion) \ and \ K.D. \ Nixon \ (hip). \ "They both \ would \ have \ made \ a \ big \ difference \ for \ us \ today," \ Mike \ MacIntyre$ said. "There were some balls not caught over the middle that should have been.

ARIZONA AT NO. 8 WASHINGTON STATE Nov. 17. 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 20.400 • TV: ESPN

PULLMAN, Wash. - Gardner Minshew threw a school-record seven touchdown passes and No. 8 Washington State routed Arizona 69-28 on Saturday night, continuing the Cougars' longshot bid for the College Football Playoff. Washington State (10-1, 7-1 Pac-12, No. 8 CFP) raced out to a 55-14 lead at halftime and was not seriously threatened on the way to its seventh consecutive victory. The Cougars host archrival No. 17 Washington next Friday, with the Apple Cup winner taking the Pac-12 North title. With their 10th win of the season, the Cougars tied a program record last accomplished in 2003. They also won their 13th straight home game and set a season high for points. Minshew, being pushed by WSU as a Heisman Trophy candidate, completed 43 of 55 passes for 473 yards and was not intercepted. Khalil Tate threw four touchdown passes for Arizona (5-6, 4-4), which had a two-game winning streak snapped. Arizona was hurt by six penalties and three turnovers in the first half, helping Washington State put the game away early. Washington State scored on its first possession, with James Williams rushing over from the 1. On the next series, Tate was intercepted by Marcus Strong. Aided by two consecutive facemask penalties against the Wildcats, Washington State advanced to the 1-yard line. Max Borghi ran in for the touchdown. Tate fired a 24-yard pass to Shawn Poindexter to cut Washington State's lead to 14-7. Minshew replied with touchdown passes to Calvin Jackson Jr. and Dezmon Patmon for a 28-7 lead. Tate threw a 37-yard TD pass to Tony Ellison. Minshew hit Jackson for a 6-yard touchdown pass, but the kick failed and Washington State led 34-14. Arizona fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the ball was booted into the end zone, where Kainoa Wilson fell on it for a 41-14 Washington State lead. Minshew added touchdown passes to Williams and Tay Martin for a 55-14 lead at halftime. Tate threw a pair of touchdown passes in the third quarter and Minshew tossed a couple in the fourth. THE TAKEAWAY Arizona: The Wildcats lead the Pac-. 12 with an average of 206 yards rushing per game, but couldn't get much going against a stout WSU defense. They need a win next weekend to become bowl eligible. Washington State: The balanced Cougars own the nation's best passing attack (392 yards per game) and rank 20th in defense. They need two victories to win the Pac-12 and have a chance at a CFP berth.

NO. 16 WASHINGTON AT NO. 7 WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 23. 2018 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 32.952 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. - Myles Gaskin broke free for an 80-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter, and No. 16 Washington won its second Pac-12 North Division title in three years, beating No. 7 Washington State 28-15 on a snowy Friday night. On a blustery cold night with snow blanketing the turf at Martin Stadium, Gaskin found enough traction to carry the Huskies into the Pac-12 championship game and ruin yet again the title hopes of Washington State. It was Washington's sixth straight win over the Cougars and the third straight year the Huskies denied Washington State the North crown. Gaskin rushed for 170 yards and three touchdowns, a year after running for 192 and four scores against the Cougars. He was the best player on the field on a night Washington needed its senior ball carrier to be just that. The Huskies (9-3, 7-2 Pac-12) will face Utah in the conference title game next Friday in Santa Clara, California. The winner will earn a spot in the Rose Bowl. "Myles, what do you say? That guy can do it all. He is the ultimately competitor. When you need something good to happen he is the guy that is going to get it done," Washington coach Chris Petersen said. Washington State (10-2, 7-2) carried the Pac-12's last remaining hope of finding a way into the College Football Playoff, but the Air Raid was mostly grounded by a combo of blowing snow and Washington's sticky secondary. Gardner Minshew was 26 of 35 for 152 yards, but his longest pass to a wide receiver went for 11 yards. James Williams rushed for two touchdowns and the Cougars trailed 20-15 going to the fourth quarter, the first time since 2008 the game had been within five points going to the final quarter. Gaskin made sure that didn't last long. Facing third-and-1 at the Washington 20, Gaskin broke through the line of scrimmage and found no one in crimson there to make the stop. He outraced Marcus Strong, getting to the goal line just in time and putting him over 1,000 yards for the season. Gaskin became the first Pac-12 running back to top 1,000 yards rushing in all four seasons. Gaskin also scored on a pair of 5-yard runs in the first half and finished his career against Washington State with 10 rushing touchdowns. "We balled out," Gaskin screamed as he ran off the field in the postgame celebration. Jake Browning threw for 207 yards, overcoming an interception and fumble to finish his career 4-0 as the Huskies starting QB against their rivals. He made a key third-down conversion early in the third quarter, hitting Hunter Bryant for a 59-yard gain, and on the next play a double-pass had Aaron Fuller hit Bryant for a 22-yard touchdown and a 20-9 lead after the extra point was blocked and returned for a Washington State score. The Cougars' pulled within 20-15 on Williams' 1-yard TD run late in the third quarter but that was as close as Washington State would get. "I thought it was a unique way to see a football game. The biggest thing is that they came out on top, that's the part really troubling me," Washington State coach Mike Leach said. THE TAKEAWAY Washington: The Huskies rushed for 258 yards in the snow and have 533 yards rushing in the past two games. Washington State: The Cougars have struggled with Washington's pass defense in recent years and the slick conditions made it even more challenging. No Washington State wide receiver had more than four catches. WASHINGTON BAND The Washington band did not perform, a day after one of its three charter buses rolled onto its side while traveling from Seattle. The Washington State band performed the Washington fight song "Bow Down to Washington" during a pregame performance on the field. The section of Martin Stadium where the Washington band would have sat was roped off and left empty. The bus crashed Thursday evening on an icy stretch of Interstate 90 in central Washington. Of the 56 people on board, 47 were taken to hospitals for evaluation or treatment

1916 ROSE BOWL

WSU 14, BROWN 0

January 1, 1916, Pasadena, Calif. – A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in iis "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

January 1, 1931, Pasadena, Calif. - The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

1981 HOLIDAY BOWL

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

December 18, 1981, San Diego - Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeate the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback

Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

December 25, 1988, Honolulu - Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heros, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession. Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

December 29, 1992, Tucson, Ariz. - Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright- Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

December 31, 1994, San Antonio - The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five.

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif. - The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second guarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Coug tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. - Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just :42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick

89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003, San Diego, Calif. -Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

COLORADO STATE 48, WSU 45

December 22, 2013, ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With less than two minutes to play and Colorado State down by eight points, Shaquil Barrett knew the Rams needed the ball back quickly to finish an improbable comeback against Washington State. Once down by 22 points in the New Mexico Bowl, the Rams got their chance when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa came barreling toward Barrett. That fumble, at the Cougars 33, set up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard run score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion run that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, Washington State's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal with 3 seconds left that gave Colorado State a 48-45 victory. It was a quarterback shootout that saw close to 800 passing yards combined and a game largely dominated by Washington State until the last 2 minutes. And Colorado State did not have a led the entire game until that winning field goal. Garrett Grayson threw for 369 yards and Bibbs ran for 169 yards and three touchdowns for Colorado State (8-6). The Rams overcame three early turnovers. Meanwhile, Washington State's Connor Halliday threw touchdown passes to six receivers and finished with 410 yards for Washington State (6-7). Those six touchdown passes tied West Virginia's Geno Smith and Iowa's Chuck Long for an NCAA bowl record. After the first touchdown pass, Halliday got into a shouting match with a Colorado

State coach when Halliday ran into the Rams' sideline. That exchange created a social media buzz and McElwain vowed to look into it. Washington State scored 35 points in the first half, but had only 10 in the second

2015 SUN BOWL

WSU 20, MIAMI 14

EL PASO, Texas - Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami on Saturday in the snowy Sun Bowl, Erik Powell added field goals of 30 and 25 yards to help the Cougars (9-4) win a bowl game for the first time since the 2003 Holiday Bowl, Miami (8-5) lost its sixth consecutive bowl game. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard endaround run set up Mark Walton' 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. Miami had a 5-yard touchdown pass from Brad Kaaya to Stacy Coley called back on a penalty with 5:14 to play. Two players later, Washington State's Marcellus Pippins recovered Walton's fumble at the 4. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was easily intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State Falk, the game's MVP, was 29 of 53 for 295 yards and no interceptions. He threw touchdown passes of 31 yards to running back Jamal Morrow and 25 yards to receiver Gabe Marks. The scoring play to Morrow, during which he turned up the right sideline and carried two defenders into the end zone, gave Washington State a 7-0 lead. Miami tied it at 7 on a 4-yard pass from Brad Kaaya to Coley. The first quarter ended 7-7, but the Cougars ran off 13 straight points in the second. Kaaya was 17 of 30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer. One of the keys for the Cougars was winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Washington State fumbled in the second quarter, but the defense forced a three-and-out. On the next series, the Cougars used a 14-play drive to get Powell's first field goal and a 10-7 lead. Washington State made it 17-7 on Falk's TD pass to Marks, and Powell made it 20-7.

SAN DIEGO - Shannon Brooks caught a tipped pass from Mitch Leidner for a 13-yard, go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and the Minnesota Golden Gophers, beset by turmoil after 10 players were suspended after a sexual assault investigation, upset Luke Falk and the Washington State Cougars 17-12 in the Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night. It was one of the few exciting plays in an otherwise pedestrian edition of what traditionally has been one of the country's most exciting bowl games. WSU cornerback Marcellus Pippins reached up with his right hand and deflected Leidner's pass in the end zone but it went right to Brooks for the TD and a 10-6 lead. That capped an 84-yard, 10-play drive on Minnesota's first possession of the second half. The Golden Gophers (9-4) were looking to regroup after backing down from a threat to skip this game if 10 teammates suspended after a sexual assault investigation weren't reinstated. Their boycott lasted less than 36 hours, with university leadership never blinking. The players backed down amid pressure from many who read details of the allegations. WSU (8-5) ended on a three-game losing streak and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Cougars had scored more than 50 points four times this season, a school record. The Golden Gophers frustrated Falk most of the game, holding him to 264 yards - 86 below his average - on 30-of-51 passing. Falk didn't crack 200 yards until the final minutes, when he led a drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Kyle Sweet. After three tries due to Minnesota penalties, the conversion attempt failed. Minnesota then recovered an onside kick. Falk came in having completed 71 percent of his passes in throwing for 4,204 yards and 37 touchdowns. The Cougars were ranked second in the nation in passing. Falk was intercepted by Adekunle Ayinde on fourth down with 3:05 left. That set up Rodney Smith's 9-yard TD run with 2:06 left for a 17-6 lead. WSU lead 6-3 after a lackluster first half that included just three field goals. The Cougars couldn't get their vaunted Air Raid offense going and crossed the 50 just twice, getting field goals of 26 and 41 yards by Erik Powell. Powell's second field goal was set up when Nnamdi Oguayo hit Leidner and forced a fumble that Isaac Dotson recovered at the Golden Gophers' 38. Minnesota got a 43-yard field goal by Emmit Carpenter in the second quarter.

2017 HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 18 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 21 WSU 17

SAN DIEGO - Brian Lewerke threw for 213 yards and three touchdowns, and LJ Scott ran for 110 yards and two scores for No. 18 Michigan State, which took advantage of Luke Falk's absence to rout No. 21 Washington State 42-17 in the Holiday Bowl. Lewerke also rushed for 73 yards for Michigan State (10-3), which rebounded from a dismal 3-9 record last year to reach double digits in wins for the eighth time in program history. Falk, who was photographed earlier in the week with a cast on his left wrist, went through warmups but came out in street clothes at game time. He was replaced by redshirt sophomore Tyler Hilinksi, who made his first start and eighth appearance of the season. It's unclear precisely when Falk injured the wrist on his non-throwing hand, but he had issues with it throughout the season. Coach Mike Leach refused to give specifics during the week. Hilinski led WSU (9-4) to a 45-yard field goal by Erik Powell on the Cougars' second drive, but the Cougars were overpowered by the Spartans. Lewerke threw the first of two TD passes to Cody White, a 7-yarder midway through the second quarter, when he was flushed to the left but found the receiver in the back of the end zone. On MSU's next possession, Lewerke took the snap and glanced at his running back, which froze the secondary and allowed Felton Davis III to get wide open for a 49-yard scoring pass. Scott scored on a 3-yard run to give the Spartans a 21-3 halftime time. Early in the third, Lewerke rolled left and had his pass tipped, but a sliding White caught it for a 7-yard touchdown. Lewerke, who finished 13 of 21, was hit hard on a keeper in the third quarter and came out for a few plays. His backup, Damion Terry, scored on a 6-yard keeper to make it 35-3. The Cougars closed the gap when Hilinski threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin late in the third quarter and a 15-yarder to Tay in the fourth quarter. Scott scored on a 28-yard burst up the middle with about six minutes left to play. Hilinski was 39 of 50 for 272 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the second straight lackluster Holiday Bowl for Leach's Cougars, who lost 17-12 to Minnesota last year. Besides being without Falk, leading receiver Tavares Martin Jr. was kicked off the team after the regular season and third-leading receiver Isaiah Johnson-Mack left the squad. Michigan State: Scott had his third 100-yard game of the season and ninth of his career. Felton had four catches for 118 yards.

Mike LEACH Head Coach 7th Year

Mike Leach, the 2018 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, is in his seventh season leading the Washington State Cougar football program after being named the Cougars' head football coach, Nov. 30, 2011. Leach has guided WSU to five bowl appearances in his first seven years, including each of the last four years, a program first.

This season Leach was recognized for one of his finest jobs coaching, leading the Cougars to a 10-2 regular season record, including seven-straight wins at one point. The Cougars were ranked in the top 13 of each College Football Playoff Ranking, including four-straight weeks at No. 8, while also leading the nation in passing for the third time in the past five years. Senior quarterback Gardner Minshew II, leads the nation in passing yards per game and total offense. The most notable improvement came from the offensive line, which allowed 44 sacks in 2017 (124th nationally) and only 11 (7th) in 2018.

Last season Leach guided WSU to a 9-4 record, 6-3 in conference play, and a secondstraight Holiday Bowl appearance and third-straight bowl game overall. The Cougars opened the seasons with six-straight victories and posted wins over No. 5 USC and No. 18 Stanford. Once again, the Cougar offense ranked among the national leaders in passing offense (2nd) while the defense ranked in the national top 25 in seven categories, including four in the top 10. Senior offensive lineman Cody O'Connell repeated as a First-Team All-American while junior Hercules Mata'afa also earned First-Team All-American honors.

In 2016, the Cougars posted an 8-5 mark, including a 7-2 record in Pac-12 play, along with an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. Leach guided a WSU offense that led the Pac-12 and finished third nationally in passing (362.5 ypg), and also led the Pac-12 in completion percentage, second nationally, at .703 percent. WSU won eight-straight games midway through the season, the most since the 1930 campaign. WSU had 10 players earn All-Pac-12 honors, five were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic teams, and redshirt junior offensive lineman Cody O'Connell was a unanimous All-American and finalist for the Outland Trophy.

The Cougars ended the 2015 season with a 9-4 record, 6-3 in the Pac-12 Conference, capped by a 20-14 Sun Bowl victory over Miami. After starting the season 2-2, the Cougars went 7-2 over the final nine games, posting last-minute victories at Oregon and No. 18 UCLA, and rallying from a fourth-quarter deficit in a 38-24 victory against Arizona State. For the second-straight season WSU led the nation in passing at 389.5 ypg, while also finishing second in the nation in red zone offense, converting 94.5 percent of their opportunities. WSU concluded the regular season by having 11 student-athletes named to All-Pac-12 teams and five to Pac-12 All-Academic teams. Senior offensive lineman Joe Dahl earned Second-Team All-America honors while defensive lineman Hercules Mata'afa garnered First-Team Freshman All-American honors by USA Today.

In 2014 Leach's offense led the nation in passing at 477.7 yards per game, the second-highest total in FBS history, trailing only Houston's 511.3 in 1989. WSU set or tied 42 school, conference or NCAA records during the season, including quarterback Connor Halliday who threw for an NCAA single-game record 734 yards against California. WSU also placed five student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams and five on All-Pac-12 teams during the season.

In 2013, Leach's second season at the helm of the Cougars, he guided Washington State to the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, the first bowl game for the Cougars in a decade. Last season the Cougars ranked fourth in the nation in passing offense, setting a school-record at 368.00 yards per game, eclipsing the previous mark of 343.3 ypg in 1997. The Cougar offense threw for more than 400 yards five times, including a 2013 NCAA FBS—best 557 yards at Oregon. Quarterback Connor Halliday set WSU single-season records for passing yards (4,587), attempts (714) and completions (449), the first WSU quarterback to surpass the 4,000-yard mark. The Cougars picked up more national recognition as safety Deone Bucannon became WSU's first All-America first-team selection since 2005 and was later selected as the No. 27 overall pick in NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, the first Cougar taken in the first round since 2003. The Cougars also placed eight student-athletes on Pac-12 All-Academic teams during the season.

In his first season in Pullman, Leach's high-powered offense led the Pac-12 Conference in passing, averaging 330.42 yards per game. That figure ranked ninth nationally and marked the second-highest average in school history. Academically, nine Cougars received Pac-12 All-Academic honors while the 2012 fall semester football GPA of 2.66 marked the first time the football team had been over a 2.60 GPA for fall semester.

Leach brought a proven record of winning to Pullman. In 10 seasons as a head coach, all at Texas Tech (2000-09) his program earned 10 bowl bids. In addition, the Susanville, Calif., native who was raised in Cody, Wyo., recorded a school-record 84 victories during his tenure.

Leading the most prolific passing offense in the country, Leach received three national coach of the year awards in 2008 - the Woody Hayes Award, Howie Long/ Fieldturf Coach of the Year, and George Munger Award. His offense spreads the field with his exciting brand of football and guided Texas Tech to six NCAA passing titles and three total offense titles during his 10 seasons in Lubbock. Leach's offense produced school records in nearly every passing category in 2000, his first season with the Red Raiders, but surpassed those numbers in each of his next nine seasons.

During Leach's time in Lubbock, Texas, the Red Raiders increased their yards per game by more than 150 and averaged nearly 20 points more per outing. In the passing game, Texas Tech threw for about 300 yards more per game in the decade Leach was at the helm.

Leach led Texas Tech to one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2008 as the team set a program record with 11 regular-season wins en route to an 11-2 record. The win total tied the mark, set previously by the 1953 and 1973 Red Raider squads. Numerous accolades poured in from across the country as an unprecedented four players earned first-team All-America status, in addition to Leach's three coach of the year honors. Quarterback Graham Harrell, offensive tackle Rylan Reed and offensive guard Brandon Carter each garnered first-team honors, while wide receiver Michael Crabtree was honored as a unanimous All-American for the second-straight season.

On the field in 2008, the Red Raiders led the nation in passing for the sixth time in Leach's ten seasons and ranked among the top five in total offense. Harrell finished his storied career second on the NCAA career passing yardage list with 15,793 yards. Harrell also broke the career NCAA passing touchdowns mark with 134.

The Texas Tech program has established itself as one of the nation's leading producers of productive quarterbacks since the 2000 season. Harrell threw for 4,555 yards in his debut as the starter in 2006 and became the sixth player and third Red Raider in NCAA history to throw for 5,000 yards in a season with his 5,705-yard effort in 2007 and 5,111 yards last season. He also is the third quarterback under Leach to win nine games in a season and the first Red Raider in history to win 11 in a regular season. Former quarterback Kliff Kingsbury in 2002 and Cody Hodges in 2005 each posted nine-win seasons during their careers, while 2003 and 2004 signal callers B.J. Symons and Sonny Cumbie each won eight games in their respective seasons as the starter.

The running game flourished under Leach as well. Former Red Raider Taurean Henderson holds the NCAA career record for receptions by a running back. The Red Raiders' 28 total rushing scores in 2008 were the most for a Tech team since the 1993 team scored 30. Despite Tech's offense revolving around the pass, Leach did a tremendous job of incorporating the running back position into the mix. Henderson finished his career with 303 receptions, which ranks first in NCAA history among running backs and fourth overall.

Leach has coached several players who have gone on to the NFL. While at Tech, 18 players have been drafted and 21 others have signed free agent contracts. In the spring of 2009, four players were selected among the first four rounds of the NFL Draft, marking the most successful draft for Texas Tech in the Leach era.

Safety Darcel McBath was selected by the Denver Broncos in the second round, while offensive lineman Louis Vasquez was taken in the third by San Diego. Defensive end Brandon Williams went to the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth.

The program made strides academically as well under Leach. During his 10 years, Tech was recognized as one of the nation's top institutions for consistently being above a 70 percent graduation rate, according to the American Football Coaches Association.

Prior to coming on board at Texas Tech, Leach, in just one season at Oklahoma, directed a Sooner offense that went from one of the worst in the Big 12 Conference to one of the best. Leach guided an Oklahoma offense that went from 11th in the Big 12 in 1998 to first in 1999 and 101st in the nation to 11th. In just one year, OU's total offense numbers improved from 293.3 to 427.2 yards per game. Under Leach, the Oklahoma offense set six Big 12 Conference and 17 OU records.

Prior to joining Bob Stoops' Oklahoma staff, Leach served as offensive coordinator for Hal Mumme at the University of Kentucky and Valdosta (Ga.) State University. Under Mumme and Leach, the Kentucky offense set six NCAA records, 41 Southeastern Conference records and 116 school records in 22 games.

Named 1996 Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year by American Football Quarterly magazine, Leach helped Mumme lead Valdosta State to a 40-17-1 record. The 1993 Blazer offense smashed 66 school records, 22 conference records and seven national records. In 1994, Valdosta State advanced to the Division II playoffs with Leach's offense shattering 80 school records, 35 conference records and seven more national marks.

Leach and Mumme first teamed up at Iowa Wesleyan College in 1989. From 1989 to 1991 Leach served as offensive coordinator and line coach for an offense that led the NAIA in passing yardage one season and finished second the other two. Iowa Wesleyan quarterbacks passed for more than 11,000 yards in Leach's three seasons and broke 26 national records.

Leach also has made coaching stops in Pori, Finland, where he served as a head coach in the European Football League (1989), as well as one-year stints at College of the Desert (1988) and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (1987).

After graduating with honors from BYU in 1983, Leach earned a master's degree from the U.S. Sports Academy and his law degree from Pepperdine University, where he graduated in the top one-third of his class.

The oldest of six siblings, Leach and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of four children; Janeen, Kim, Cody and Kiersten, along with three grandchildren.

Tracy
CLAEYS
Defensive Coordinator
1st Year

Washington State University Head Football Coach Mike Leach announced January 8, 2018 that Tracy Claeys had been named WSU's defensive coordinator.

Claeys, 49, most recently served as the head coach at the University of Minnesota, where he posted an 11-8 record with back-to-back bowl victories after taking over the program Nov. 11, 2015 when he succeeded Jerry Kill, who resigned due to health reasons. Claeys had been a part of the Minnesota coaching staff since 2011, where he served as defensive coordinator before adding the title of associate head coach prior to the 2014 season. He also reunites with Cougar defensive line coach Jeff Phelps, who coached alongside Claeys at Minnesota from 2011-18

In 2016, his first full season as head coach, Claeys guided the Gophers to a 9-4 record, a 5-4 mark in Big Ten play and a victory over Washington State in the Holiday Bowl. Minnesota's nine wins were the most it had earned since winning 10 games in 2003 and were the second most since 1905 when the Gophers also won 10 games.

Minnesota's defense allowed an average of 22.1 points in 2016, which was the lowest since it allowed 21.9 in 2003. In 2011, when Claeys was in his first year as defensive coordinator, Minnesota allowed 31.7 points, but since then the most it has allowed in a season is 24.2 points. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, the Gophers had held 36 of their last 48 opponents below their scoring average. In 23 of those games, Minnesota held its opposition to eight or more points below their season average and in nine games, the Gophers held their opponents to 14 or more points below their season average.

During the 2015 season, Claeys guided Minnesota to a 2-4 record after replacing Kill the second half of the season. That included a 21-14 win over Central Michigan in the 2015 Quick Lane Bowl. That season the Gophers finished 24th in total defense and 11th nationally in pass defense.

Claeys has coached four First Team All-Big Ten defensive selections - Briean Boddy-Calhoun (2014), Damien Wilson (2014), Ra'Shede Hageman (2013) and Brock Vereen (2013) - at Minnesota in five years. In contrast, Minnesota had five First Team All-Big Ten defensive selections from 2000-10.

Claeys-coached players are also catching the attention of NFL teams at an increasing rate. Minnesota has had six defensive players taken in the NFL Draft in the last three years in Eric Murray (2016, Kansas City Chiefs), De'Vondre Campbell (2016, Atlanta Falcons), Damien Wilson (2015, Dallas Cowboys), Cedric Thompson (2015, Miami Dolphins), Ra'Shede Hageman (2014, Atlanta Falcons) and Brock Vereen (2014, Chicago Bears). Minnesota had six total defensive players drafted from 2000-13.

Prior to Minnesota, Claeys spent three seasons at Northern Illinois and seven years at Southern Illinois, all as the defensive coordinator. In 2008, his first season at Northern Illinois, Claeys and the defensive staff engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in the country, as the Huskies led the MAC in pass defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Huskies finished in the top 20 nationally in three categories – fifth in pass defense, 14th in scoring defense and 17th in total defense.

Claeys' defense topped the MAC and ranked 30th in the country in total defense the following year. The Huskies were also among the top 30 FBS teams in the country in scoring defense that season.

In 2010, Claeys led a Northern Illinois defensive unit that was ranked No. 14 in the nation and No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference in scoring defense, allowing an average of just 19 points per game. The Huskies were also No. 32 in the nation in pass efficiency defense, No. 27 in total defense and No. 27 in rushing defense in Claeys' final season.

In his last five years at Southern Illinois, Claeys' defenses allowed an average of 18.5 points while holding opponents to 14 points or less 21 times, which included five shutouts. In 2007, Southern Illinois reached the FCS national semifinal and its defense ranked as the 10th-best FCS scoring defense in the country and the second-best scoring defense at SIU since 1983. They also intercepted 21 passes to rank fourth in the nation.

In 2004, Southern Illinois led the country in scoring defense, allowing just 13.2 points per game. The Salukis gave up only 101.7 yards per game on the ground while snagging 17 interceptions.

Claeys started his coaching career at Santa Fe Trail High School in 1994. He joined Kill in 1995 at Saginaw Valley State, where he coached the defensive line. Claeys became Kill's defensive coordinator at Emporia State in 1999. He remained in that capacity when Kill took over at Southern Illinois in 2001 and Northern Illinois in 2008.

Claeys, who attended both Kansas and Kansas State, graduated with a degree in Mathematics Education in 1994 from Kansas State. He did not play collegiate football.

Matt BROCKSpecial Teams / Outside Linebackers
1st Year

Matt Brock joined the Mike Leach's staff in January of 2018, serving as the speical teams coordinator while also coaching the outside linebackers.

Brock arrives in Pullman having spent the past two seasons at Bowling Green, where he served as special team's coordinator and worked with linebackers. In 2017, he was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the country. His special teams units ranked among the nation's top 20 in three different categories: net punting average (4th), kickoff return defense (3rd) and punt return defense (20th).

In his first season at BGSU, Brock's special teams ranked No. 1 nationally in kickoff defense, third in net punting average and No. 28 in punt return defense. Punter Joseph Davidson was a two-time Ray Guy Award semifinalist, in 2016 was a first team Academic All-American, and was named fourth team All-American by Phil Steele.

Prior to BGSU, Brock spent three seasons at Texas Tech as a defensive quality control assistant. He also coached the defensive line in the Texas Bowl against LSU in 2015. Brock was promoted to inside linebackers coach early in the 2014 season following the departure of defensive coordinator Matt Wallerstedt and served in that capacity during the remainder of that season. Brock was the defensive quality control coach in his first season at Tech in 2013.

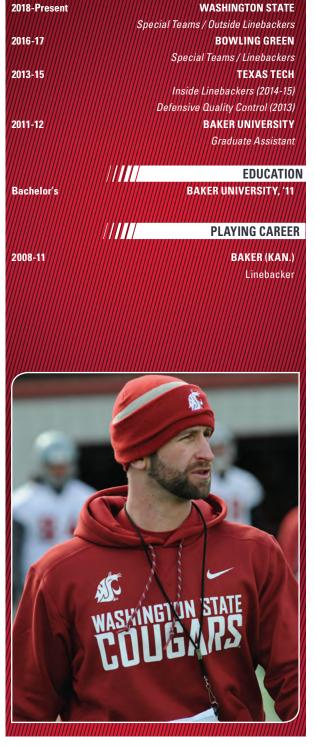

In 2014, Brock spent the majority of the season as the inside linebackers coach, developing Sam Eguavoen, an All-Big 12 linebacker. He assisted in developing the game plan each week and was directly involved in analysis and evaluation on game day. During the 2013 season, Brock's first with the Red Raiders, he coached Will Smith who garnered All-Big 12 honors along with being named Holiday Bowl Defensive Player of the Game. Smith was drafted in the seventh round by the Dallas Cowboys.

He went to Texas Tech following two seasons at Baker University (2011-12), his alma mater, where he served as a graduate assistant coach, overseeing the team's linebackers and assisted Baker defensive coordinator Jason Thoren in the coaches' booth on game day.

Brock was a linebacker during his collegiate playing career at Baker. He tallied 277 career tackles and posted seven interceptions while leading the league in total tackles and tackles per game in 2010.

A 2009 and 2010 all-conference pick, Brock was a two-time Academic All-American and earned several team most valuable player awards.

Brock graduated from Baker in 2011 while majoring in physical education. Brock is married to his wife, Alyssa.

Darcel
McBATH
Cornerbacks
1st Year

Darcel McBath begins his second season on the Cougar Football staff and the first as the cornerbacks coach. In 2017 he served in the role of defensive quality control where he assisted with game prep, film breakdown and statistical tendencies.

McBath spent the 2016 season as a quality control intern at North Texas, working with defensive backs.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, McBath spent five seasons in the NFL. A second-round selection by the Denver Broncos in the 2009 NFL Draft, McBath spent two seasons, in Denver, one in Jacksonville and two in San Francisco. He played in 52 total games, making 45 tackles with two interceptions. He played in Super Bowl XLVII as a member of the 49ers, making one tackle.

McBath was a four-year letterwinner at defensive back for Texas Tech, earning All-Big 12 first team honors in 2008 after leading the nation in interceptions. He graduated in 2008 with a degree in general studies.

McBath and his wife, Malorie, were married in 2013 and have two children, Ansleigh and Duke.

Eric
MELE
Running Backs
4th Year

Eric Mele is in his fourth full season as a Cougar assistant coach, and first year working with running backs after spending the previous three seasons as the special teams coordinator. He was promoted to the full-time special teams coach in February, 2015, after serving in the same role on an interim basis the final two months of the 2014 campaign.

Mele spent the previous two and a half seasons in an offensive quality control position, working with film breakdown and assisting with the development of quarterbacks.

In 2017, Mele mentored All-Pac-12 Second Team kicker Erik Powell, who concluded his Cougar career third on the school's all-time points kicking list. Powell earned Pac-12 Special Teams PLayer of the Week three times during the season and was also a Lou Groza Award semifinalist.

In 2016 the Cougars produced some impressive special teams numbers while reaching a couple milestones. WSU recorded its first kick return for touchdown since 2003 and its first punt return for a touchdown since 2005, the first time to record both in the same season since 1968. As a result of the returns, both Robert Taylor (kickoff) and Kaleb Fossum (punt) earned Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Earlier in the season, the Cougars scored twice on special teams in the win over Idaho, returning a blocked field goal for a touchdown and later scoring after recovering a fumble during a kickoff. In Pac-12 play, Washington State was the top-ranked punt return team (18.8 yards-per-return) and was second in kick return (23.0 yards-per-return).

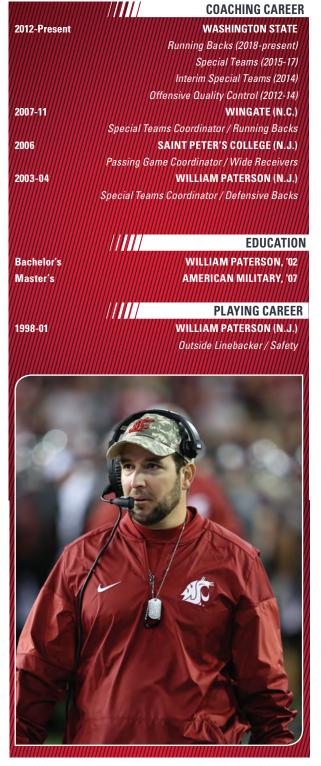

In 2015 the Cougar special teams showed improvement from 2014 in many statistical categories, including kickoff coverage, kickoff return, punt return and punt return defense. Freshman kick returner Tavares Martin, Jr. was eighth in the Pac-12 in kickoff returns at 22.1 ypr while kicker Erik Powell made 20 field goals, fourth-most in WSU history.

Prior to Washington State, Mele spent five seasons as the special teams coordinator/running backs coach at Wingate University. In his time at Wingate, Mele helped guide the Bulldogs to a 36-19 record highlighted by a second-appearance in the 2010 NCAA Division II playoffs.

Prior to his time at Wingate, Mele spent the 2006 season as the wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator at Saint Peter's College (N.J.) where they finished eighth in the FCS in completions. He worked the 2005 season as the co-defensive coordinator/special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at Marist High School (N.J.), helping them to their first playoff berth in 12 seasons. Mele also worked two seasons as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach at William Paterson University (N.J.).

Mele was a three-year starter at strong safety and outside linebacker at William Paterson where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology and criminal justice in 2002. He earned his master's degree in sports management from the American Military University in 2007.

Mele and his wife, Melissa, have four daughters, Samantha, Jordan, Taylor and Madison.

Mason
MILLER
Offensive Line
1st Year

Mason Miller begins his first season on Coach Leach's staff as the offensive line coach. Miller arrives in Pullman after serving one year as Nevada's offensive line coach, under first-year coach Jay Norvell. No stranger to the Air Raid system, Miller has spent the majority of his career coaching in that style of offense, working with both Leach and Hal Mumme, two of the Air Raid's architects.

Miller, who has coached at all three levels of the NCAA, has been a key part in establishing lethal offenses wherever he goes. As part of the coaching staff at Southeastern Louisiana, New Mexico State, McMurry and Tarleton State, Miller's offenses have set numerous school records and have ranked in the top five in the nation in multiple offensive categories.

During his time at Tarleton State (2014-16), Miller constructed the team's high powered offense into one of the most potent in the nation. For the 2014 season Tarleton State ranked third nationally in total offense, averaging 534 yards per game and put up 43 points per game. The same continued in 2015 with one of the most high powered offenses in the country, averaging nearly 40 points per game.

Prior to Tarleton State, Miller served as the head coach at McMurry for the 2013 season. While leading the War Hawks, the offense set school records in multiple categories including total yards (5,775), yards per game (523.1) and most points scored (424). Before his promotion to head coach, Miller was an assistant coach for the War Hawks for four seasons (2009-12). He had been an integral part of three consecutive winning seasons at McMurry, something that had happened just six other times in the university's 87-year football history. In Miller's four seasons as an assistant coach the War Hawks averaged 416 yards per game of total offense with better than 346 yards per game coming through the air. Miller began as the War Hawks' assistant head coach and offensive line coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator after the departure of Matt Mumme following the 2010 season. Miller also served as McMurry's recruiting coordinator.

The 2012 campaign, which was McMurry's first as an NCAA Division II competitor, saw the War Hawk offense average more than 433 yards per game in total offense, 367 yards per game via the passing game. Then-quarterback Jake Mullin became just the 59th player in NCAA history - at any level - to pass for both 10,000 yards and 100 touchdowns in a career, leading the team to its first bowl appearance, and win, in 63 years.

In 2011, Miller's first as offensive coordinator, he oversaw an offense that ranked 18th in the nation, and second in the American Southwest Conference, in scoring offense at 37.7 points per game. Eight of his 2011 players were named to the All-ASC team on offense. Additionally, McMurry broke the NCAA Division III single game total offense record with 863 yards versus Texas Lutheran. In 2010 Miller guided the offensive line, which paved the way for the No. 2 ranked passing offense in both the ASC and NCAA Division III.

Miller played running back at Valdosta State under offensvie coordinator Mike Leach for two seasons (1994-95) and was a member of the NCAA Division II team that made the national playoffs for the first time in school history. Miller stayed on at Valdosta State as a student assistant after suffering a career-ending knee injury. He was a part of the staff that led VSU to a 1996 Gulf South Conference Championship.

Following a two-year stint coaching Valwood High School in Valdosta, Ga., he returned to the collegiate ranks at Washington and Lee University, serving as the wide receivers coach. Miller then reunited with his old college football coach and helped Hal Mumme start the Southeastern Louisiana University football program from scratch. Miller coached the running backs in 2003 and moved to coach the offensive line in 2004 and helped SE Louisiana rank No. 1 in the nation in total offense.

Hal Mumme took Miller with him to New Mexico State in Las Cruces, N.M. from 2005-08 and worked with the Aggies' offensive line all four years and an offense that ranked third in the nation in total offense. He coached four all-conference linemen at NMSU including Nick Cole, who played in the NFL for the Philadelphia Eagles. Miller was promoted to assistant head coach prior to the 2008 season with the Aggies.

Miller graduated from Valdosta State in Georgia with a bachelor's degree in history in 1999. He and his wife, Megan, have two daughters, Madison and Mallory.

Dave
NICHOL
Inside Receivers
3rd Year

Dave Nichol is in his third season on Washington State's staff after being named the Cougars outside receivers coach in Dec., 2015, reuniting with Head Coach Mike Leach. At the start of 2017 fall camp Nichol moved from coaching outside receivers to working with the insider receivers.

In 2017, WSU's inside receviers combined for 135 receptions, 1,444 yards and nine touchdowns. Junior Kyle Sweet was the only upper classman as the unit returns in tact for the 2018 seasons. Redshirt-freshman Renard Bell was a Pac-12 All-Freshman First Team selected while treu freshman Jamire Calvin earned second-team accolades.

In 2016, the Cougar outside receivers combined for 203 receptions for 2,032 yards and 21 touchdowns, led by senior Gabe Marks, who repeated as an All-Pac-12 First Team performer. Marks also became the Pac-12 career leader in receptions, finishing with 316 and 37 touchdowns, second all-time in conference history.

Nichol is no stranger to a Mike Leach-coached team, having spent three seasons (2003-05) as an offensive line assistant at Texas Tech under the current Cougar head coach. Prior to WSU, Nichol served as the offensive coordinator at East Carolina in 2015.

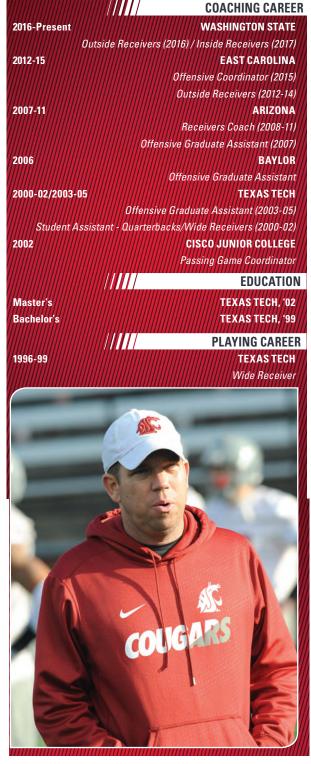

Nichol has coached on staffs that have reached 11 bowl games since 2000. In 2015 he was elevated to East Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after serving the previous three seasons as the Pirates' outside receivers coach. While at ECU, Nichol played a vital role in guiding an offense that finished third nationally in passing and fifth in total offense during the 2014 season. The Pirate offense established successive single-season school records for passing yards and total offense, and combined he was part of 70 individual or team single-game, single-season and career offensive standards that were tied or set from 2012-14.

Prior to East Carolina, Nichol spent five seasons on the staff at Arizona. He began as a graduate assistant in 2007, focusing on the offensive line, he was promoted to outside receivers coach after one season and added the insider receivers the following year. With Nichol on staff, the Wildcats saw their offense increase 130 yards per game over the previous offensive system as Arizona reached three-straight bowl games. His final season in Tucson the Wildcat offense moved from 10th to 3rd in passing nationally, ending the 2011 season averaging 370.8 ypg.

Nichol began his coaching career as a student coach at his alma mater Texas Tech following his playing career as a wide receiver. He followed that with a year at Cisco (Texas) Junior College, three years back at Texas Tech as an offensive assistant, and a year at Baylor (2006) as a staff assistant.

Nichol, 39, earned his bachelor's degree in exercise sports sciences from Texas Tech in 1999 and followed with a master's in interdisciplinary studies from the same institution three years later.

A native of Chicago, III., Nichol graduated from Jesuit College Preparatory School of Dallas (Texas) before enrolling at Texas Tech.

Jeff
PHELPS
Defensive Line
2nd Year

Jeff Phelps begins his second season on the Couogars' coaching staff working with the defensive line.

In 2017, Phelps directed a defensive line that produced 45.5 TFL's and 20 sacks, helping the Cougar defense to rank in the top 20 in eight different categories. He also mentored Hercules Mata'afa to one of the finest seasons in school history as the redshirt-junior garnered Consensus All-America honors and was named the 2017 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year. Mata'afa registered 10.5 sacks and 22.5 tackles-for-loss and was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year.

Phelps arrived in Pullman having spent the past six seasons as the defensive line coach at the University of Minnesota. This past season Minnesota posted a 9-4 record, including a win over Washington State in the Holiday Bowl. The Gopher defense ranked 12th in the nation in tackles for loss, 14th in rushing yards allowed and 22nd in sacks.

During his six seasons in Minneapolis, Phelps was a part of five bowl teams and coached four players who earned All-Big Ten honors, including 2013 Third Team All-American Ra'Shede Hagemen, who was a 2014 second-round draft pick by the Atlanta Falcons.

Phelps joined the Minnesota staff after spending five years coaching at Northern Illinois. From 2008-2010, he coached the Huskies' defensive line. In 2006-07, Phelps was responsible for coaching the Huskie defensive tackles.

Phelps coached defensive end Larry English at NIU. English went on to be named the Mid-American Conference's Most Valuable Player twice and was the 2008 MAC Defensive Player of the Year. He was the 16th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft, going to the San Diego Chargers.

Phelps began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State in 1999. He then spent three seasons at DePauw, where he coached the running backs for two seasons before going to the defensive side of the ball to coach the linebackers. He then spent three seasons at Hillsdale (Mich.) College, where he coached the defensive line from 2003-05 before joining the staff at NIU.

Phelps was a Second-Team All-MAC player at outside linebacker for Ball State following his senior season in 1997. He was also an Honorable Mention All-MAC selection as a junior. The Chicago native holds a bachelor's degree from Ball State.

Phelps is a graduate of Crete-Monee High School, where he was a three-sport standout, earning seven letters - football (2), wrestling (2), track and field (3).

He and his wife Tyla have a son, Carsen, and a daughter, Harlyn.

Kendrick
SHAVER
Safeties
1st Year

Washington State University Head Football Coach Mike Leach announced January 16, 2018 that Kendrick Shaver has been added to the Cougar football staff and will coach safeties.

Shaver recently completed his seventh season at Utah State, second as the codefensive coordinator. Throughout his time at Utah State, Shaver spent six seasons coaching in the secondary before working with outside linebackers in 2017.

During his seven years at Utah State, Shaver has been part of a Utah State program that played in a school-record six-straight bowl games, to go along with a 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship.

Each of the past two seasons the Aggie defense has ranked among the top 20 nationally in passing yards allowed, finishing the 2017 seasons 19th at 182.5 ypg. The USU defense has another similarity with recent Washington State defenses: turnovers gained. In 2017, the Aggie defense gained 29 turnovers, which ranked sixth nationally. That figure was one better than WSU's 28 turnovers gained, which ranked ninth.

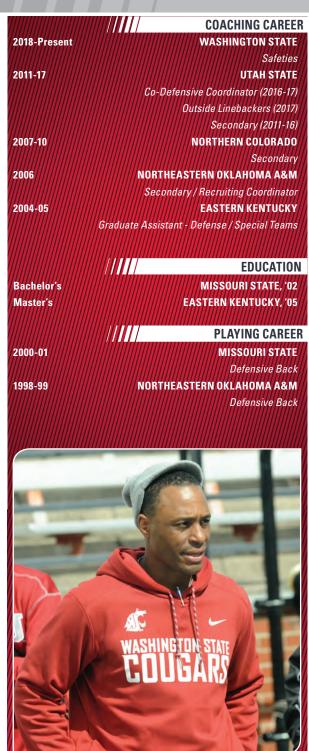

Throughout his seven years on the Aggies' defense staff, Utah State's defense has been at or the near the top of the Mountain West Conference and among the top third of the national leaders in several categories. In 2013 and 2014, the USU defense ranked seventh and 12th, respectively, in scoring defense

During his time at Utah State, Shaver, who was named FootballScoop.com's Co-Defensive Backs National Coach of the Year in 2012, mentored current NFL player Nevin Lawson of Detroit. He also has coached All-Americans Will Davis (2012) and Lawson (2013), while two Utah State cornerbacks have been selected in the NFL Draft: Davis in the third round (93rd pick) of the 2013 NFL Draft by Miami and Lawson in the fourth round (133rd overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft by Detroit.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Shaver spent four years (2007-10) as the secondary coach at Northern Colorado. Shaver was also the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M (2006), and defensive and special teams graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (2004-05). He began his coaching career at Hillcrest (Mo.) High School, where he coached defensive backs and wide receivers in 2002.

A native of Eufaula, Okla., Shaver played two seasons (1998-99) at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College before transferring to Missouri State, where he was a free safety and cornerback in 2000 and 2001. With 11 pass breakups in 2001, Shaver is presently tied for No. 6 on MSU's single-season pass defense list. Shaver spent the 2003 season playing for the Sioux Falls Storm of the NIFL before coaching full-time.

Shaver, who graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in business in 2002 and went on to earn his master's degree in physical education in 2005 from Eastern Kentucky, served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Oakland Raiders in 2014.

Steve SPURRIER JR.
Outside Receivers
1st Year

Steve Spurrier, Jr. joined the Cougar coaching staff in January 2018 as WSU's outside receivers coach under Head Coach Mike Leach.

Spurrier Jr. joined the Cougar staff having spent the 2017 season as the assistant head coach/ quarterbacks at Western Kentucky University. Last season he helped develop quarterback Mike White into WKU's first Senior Bowl participant at quarterback and just the second quarterback in school history to post multiple seasons of 4,000 or more passing yards. The Hilltoppers reached the Autonation Cure Bowl last season as White's 4,177 passing yards were No. 4 nationally while his 368 completions led the nation.

Spurrier Jr.'s collegiate coaching career has included 16 postseason bowl games, including the Sugar Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Orange Bowl, as well as five conference championships (three SEC and two Big 12) and two national championships (Oklahoma, 2000; Florida, 1996).

Spurrier spent the 2016 campaign at Oklahoma in an off-field role as a recruiting and offensive specialist, particularly with offensive coordinator Lincoln Riley.

Prior to his time in Norman, Spurrier spent 11 seasons at South Carolina on his father's staff as the Gamecocks' wide receivers coach. He added titles of passing game coordinator in 2009, recruiting coordinator in 2011 and co-offensive coordinator in 2012. During his time in Columbia, the Gamecocks went to nine bowl games and his pupils featured future NFL stars Sidney Rice, Alshon Jeffery and Kenny McKinley.

Under Spurrier Jr., Jeffery developed into one of South Carolina's all-time greatest receivers, setting school records for career receiving yards (3,042) and 100-yard receiving games (12), and tying the school record for touchdown catches with 23 in 2011. Jeffery's All-America sophomore season (2010) earned him a spot as a Biletnikoff finalist as he tallied a single-season school record 1,517 yards.

Spurrier was also invested in the development of Los Angeles Rams wide receiver Pharoh Cooper, a fourth round draft pick in 2016. During Cooper's sophomore season (2014), he set the school's single-game receiving yards record with 233 and was named the 2014 Independence Bowl MVP for a nine catch, 170-yard performance against Miami.

The South Carolina record book is littered with receivers coached by Spurrier. On top of Jeffery and Cooper, McKinley become South Carolina's all-time leader in receptions (207) and receiving yards in 2008 before Jeffery broke his yardage record three seasons later. Prior to joining his father at South Carolina, Spurrier spent one season at the University of Arizona (2004) under head coach Mike Stoops. He spent two seasons as wide receivers coach in the NFL with the Washington Redskins (2002-03) where he coached Laveranues Coles to a 2003 Pro Bowl season with 82 receptions for 1,204 yards.

Before joining his father at South Carolina, Spurrier spent one season at the University of Arizona (2004) under head coach Mike Stoops, two seasons as wide receivers coach in the NFL with the Washington Redskins (2002-03) and was a part of Bob Stoops' rebuilding project at Oklahoma (1999-2001), culminating with a perfect 13-0 record and national championship in 2000. He also worked alongside Leach during the 1999 season at Oklahoma.

A native of Palo Alto, Calif., Spurrier Jr. played collegiately at Duke where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1994. While working as a graduate assistant at Florida, Spurrier added his master's in 1996. Spurrier Jr. and his wife, the former Melissa Beauchamp, are the parents of triplets, Luke, Gavin and Emmaline; Nolan; twins, Palmer and Hayden, and McKinley.

Ken
Linebackers
6th Year

Ken Wilson joined Coach Leach's staff in February, 2013, after spending the previous 23 years at the University of Nevada, 19 on the Wolf Pack coaching staff.

In 2017, Wilson managed a group which lost its veteran leaders for much of the season as Peyton Pelluer missed 10 games, Isaac Dotson parts of six, and Nate DeRider seven. No other linebackers on the roster had taken a snap yet the corp still managed to total 228 tackles and 23.5 TFL's. Redshirt-freshman Jahad Woods was recognized by SB Nation on the Pac-12 All-Freshman First Team while redshirt-freshman Justus Rogers was a second-team selection.

In his fourth season, Wilson saw Peyton Pelluer earn All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention after maing a team-best 93 tackles, fourth-most in the league. Pelluer and fellow linebacker Isaac Dotson, who finished fourth on the team with 64 tackles and a pair of interceptions, led a defense that finished the year third in in the Pac-12 in rushing defense and tied for fourth in turnovers forced.

In 2015, Cougar linebackers finished one-two in tackles, with redshirt sophomore Peyton Pelluer and senior Jeremiah Allison leading the way. Pelluer had 101 tackles, fourth in the Pac-12, en route to all-conference honorable mention honors, while Allison was close behind with 97 tackles.

During his time with the Cougars, Wilson has overseen a linebacking group that in 2013 produced four of WSU's top five tacklers led by Justin Sagote's 106 tackles, fifth in the Pac-12 Conference, and helped develop the Cougar defense that forced 30 turnovers, second-most in the conference and the most by WSU since 2006. In 2014 Wilson coached All-Pac-12 linebacker Jeremiah Allison, who finished second on the team in tackles.

Wilson helped the Wolf Pack appear in 11 bowl games and claim nine conference championships during his 13 seasons on the sidelines. Wilson served the last five seasons as the associate head coach/linebackers coach and also worked six seasons with linebackers, one with safeties, one with defensive ends and a total of three seasons as the defensive coordinator.

Wilson has seen 16 of his former players sign professional contracts including six linebackers who were under NFL contract in 2012. Wilson mentored first team All-WAC selection Dontay Moch, who was taken by the Cincinnati Bengals with the 66th overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. He put another defensive end into the NFL after the 2011 season as Kaelin Burnett signed with the Oakland Raiders.

In 2009, Wilson headed up the linebackers and oversaw the development of a youthful group that included second-team All-WAC selection James-Michael Johnson. He also coached NFL linebacker Joshua Mauga (New York Jets) and former New York Giant and St. Louis Ram, Jerome Johnson. During the 2007 season, Wilson served as the defensive coordinator and was also the safeties coach. Nevada's starting safeties, Uche Anyanwu and Justin Jackson, combined for 144 tackles. Overall, the defense was fourth in pass defense and fifth in total defense.

Prior to that, Wilson headed up the Pack's inside linebacking corps while also serving as the team's assistant head coach. In 2006, two of Wilson's pupils - Jason DeMars and Joshua Mauga - finished second and third on the team in tackles, tallying over 110 tackles combined.

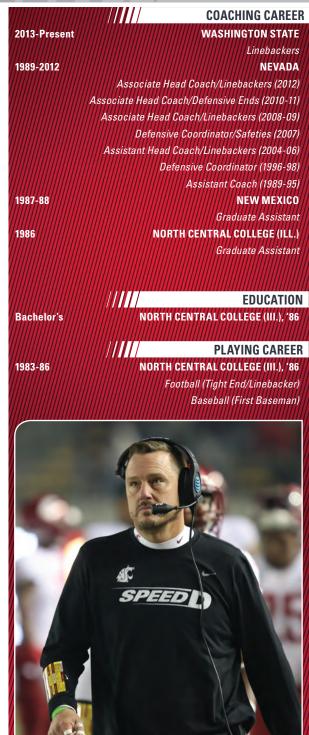

Prior to going back to coaching when Ault took over the program in December 2003, Wilson had served as an assistant athletics director/sports services at Nevada the previous four and half years. He oversaw football, men's basketball, baseball, track and tennis while coordinating grant-in-aid for all student-athletes in Nevada's 19-sport athletics program.

Wilson spent six seasons working with Ault from 1989-92 and 1994-95. He was also an assistant coach for Jeff Horton in 1993 and Jeff Tisdel from 1996-98, spending those final three seasons as defensive coordinator. As the nation's youngest Division I defensive coordinator, he directed the 1996 defense to the top of the conference in every defensive category and was part of the Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State.

The North Central (III.) graduate (1986) has coached six players who signed professional contracts, three of them in the NFL, including Nevada's all-time tackles leader, DeShone Myles, as well as Mike Crawford and Steve Bryant. Mylwa and Matt Clafton - were named to Nevada's All-Century team at linebacker.

Wilson has coached defensive line, linebackers and secondary during his career, which also included stints at his alma mater (1986) and at New Mexico (1987-88).

Wilson and his wife, Heather, have a son, Tyler who played football at Nevada, and a daughter, Baylie, who attends Washington State.

Dave
EMERICK
Senior Associate A.D.
Football Chief of Staff
7th Year

When Mike Leach was named head coach at Washington State University, he wasted no time in naming David Emerick as his chief of staff, a position similar to what Emerick held while he and Leach were at Texas Tech.

Emerick, beginning his seventh year at Washington State, has taken on additional responsibilities since joining the Cougar staff and was promoted to Senior Associate Director of Athletics/Chief of Staff for football prior to the 2013 season. At WSU Emerick oversees all of the Cougar football recruiting efforts, while also working closely with senior administration as it relates to the football program.

Emerick is no stranger to the Pac-12 Conference, having spent the 2010-11 seasons at the University of Arizona, where he oversaw Arizona's recruiting efforts as assistant director of operations and director of on-campus recruiting. In 2010 the Wildcats reached the Alamo Bowl against Oklahoma State.

Emerick joined the Arizona football staff in February 2010 after six years working with Leach as a member of the Texas Tech Red Raider staff. During his final two years in Lubbock he was chief of staff and assistant athletics director. There he oversaw the entire recruiting process for the football program and assisted in the organization and execution of football camps.

Additionally, Emerick served as the liaison between the football program and the Texas Tech overall department, specifically in academics, compliance, media relations and marketing areas.

Emerick began his Texas Tech stint in 2004 as he served as unit coordinator during his first season and Director of Player Personnel his next three seasons, before assuming the chief of staff position.

A 2002 political science graduate of the University of Kentucky, Emerick was a college scouting intern with the Houston Texans during the franchise's first season in 2002. Prior to his stint with the Texans, Emerick was the recruiting and football operations intern at Kentucky while in school during the 1997 through 2001 seasons. As such he was part of the 1998 Outback Bowl and 1999 Music City Bowl appearances by the Wildcats.

Emerick is a graduate of Catholic Memorial High School in his hometown of Waukesha, Wis., and lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He received his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis in sport management in May of 2007 from Texas Tech.

He and his wife, Sara, have one son, Cristian and one daughter, Caroline.

Antonio
HUFFMAN
Assistant Athletic Director
Football Operations
7th Year

Antonio Huffman begins his seventh year as director of football operations at Washington State University, joining Mike Leach's staff in January, 2012. Following the 2015 season, Huffman was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director.

At WSU Huffman oversees the day-to-day operations of the football staff, which includes serving as the football liaison for compliance, academics and student conduct. He also oversees all aspects of team travel, the Cougar guest coach program, while also directing all of WSU's football camps and clinics.

Huffman arrived in Pullman following two seasons at East Carolina University, where he served in a similar role on Ruffin McNeill's staff.

Prior to his appointment at ECU, Huffman served as director of player personnel for two seasons at his alma mater Texas Tech, where he was the chief liaison officer between the football program and the athletics department's NCAA compliance division. He also held the title of Tech's assistant recruiting coordinator, setting up and executing official and unofficial prospect visits, campus tours and summer camps.

In addition to managing the Red Raiders' eligibility and procedural matters, Huffman also handled housing responsibilities and worked closely with players in academic and community relations activities that prompted the founding of the popular "Huff's Huggables" charity drive.

Huffman was also charged with providing oversight of Texas Tech's new Football Training Facility (FTF) in 2009. He supervised both the presentation of the building as well as the maintenance of aesthetics that enabled the FTF to rank as one of the premier training facilities nationally.

A three-year starter as a defensive back for the Red Raiders, Huffman completed his career with 189 tackles, four interceptions and 25 pass breakups. In his final collegiate contest, he was named Defensive MVP of the 2006 Insight Bowl after a game-changing interception helped Texas Tech to a 44-41 overtime victory over Minnesota that completed an improbable comeback.

During his academic tenure at Tech, Huffman earned selection to prestigious honors such as the John Wooden Leadership Cup (2007), NCAA Leadership Conference (2006), Draddy Award (semifinalist in 2006), President and Dean's List (2005-06). He graduated in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in human development and family studies and is currently working on completing a master's degree in sociology.

Before enrolling at TTU, he attended Garden City (Kan.) Community College in 2001-2003 where he was a member of Phi Theta Kappa National Honor Society and elected freshman class president.

Huffman is married to the former Shelley Bartley of Lubbock, Texas, and they are the parents of son, Aeson Deon, and daughter, Aniyah Jordan.

Tyson BROWNHead Football Strength and Conditioning Coach
1st Year

Tyson Brown begins his first season as the Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Cougars after serving the past four seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach. Brown served a brief stint as the director of strength and conditioning at Elon College prior to being named to his current position.

While at WSU, Brown has been involved with all facets of the football strength program, which has led to 26 wins over the past three seasons. Return to play and injury modifications, data tracking, nutrition and rehabilitation are all components of his time in Pullman.

Prior to WSU, Brown spent one year as associate director of strength and conditioning at the University of South Florida.
