- This is the second time Texas and Utah have faced each other. Texas won 21-12 in a 1982 meeting between the two schools in Austin.
- Texas will be playing in its fourth Valero Alamo Bowl tying Iowa and Oklahoma State for the most all-time appearances.
- Quarterback Colt McCoy led the Longhorns to a 26-24 come-from-behind win in 2006. Texas then played back-to-back in San Antonio 2012 and 2013. The 2012 game was a 31-27 win over #13 Oregon State followed by a 30-7 loss against Marcus Mariota and the #10 Oregon Ducks in head coach Mack Brown's last game as a Longhorn.
- This year's 2019 kickoff is in an unopposed TV window on Tuesday, December 31 at 6:30 p.m. the day after the primetime broadcast of the Capital One Orange Bowl and the night before the Allstate Sugar Bowl.
- Texas' prior three Valero Alamo Bowl appearances averaged 7.4 million viewers which is 26% higher than the game's 5.9 million average viewership since 2005.
- Utah will be making their first appearance in San Antonio, although the Utes were the runners up in the 1998 Men's NCAA Final Four in San Antonio.
- Since the Pac-12 Championship game debuted in 2011, the loser of that game has also lost their bowl game. If the Utes break that eight-game streak this year, they will improve to 5-0 all-time in bowl games in Texas.
- This is the Valero Alamo Bowl's first New Year's Eve game since the first two games in 1993 and 1994.
- Eleven Valero Alamo Bowls since 2005 have been decided in the final minutes of the game including the 2017 and 2018 games that were each decided by two points.
- This is Year #6 of a six-year agreement to match up the #1 team in the Pac-12 against the #1 team in the Big 12 after the CFP selections. The Big 12 holds a 3-2 advantage over the Pac-12 during this time. This partnership has been extended for the 2020 – 2025 seasons.

GAME NOTES

Texas

- In his first two seasons at Texas, head coach Tom Herman led the Longhorns to victories in the Texas and Sugar Bowls. Herman spent his first two years as a head coach at the University of Houston. The Cougars went bowling both years highlighted by a Peach Bowl win to cap off a 13-1 season in 2015.
- Head coach Tom Herman's overall bowl record is 3-0 including two New Year's Six Bowl game wins.
- The Longhorns' offense is led by third-year quarterback, Sam Ehlinger who threw for 3,462 yards and 29 touchdowns, and accounted for 4,052 yards of total offense. The Valero Alamo Bowl record for most touchdowns is 7 (4 passing and 3 rushing) set by Washington quarterback Keith Price in 2011.
- Wide receiver Devin Duvernay staked his claim as one of college football's best receivers with his play in 2019. Duvernay leads the country in receptions per game at 8.6 and total receptions at 103. Kansas State's Tyler Lockett holds the Valero Alamo Bowl's all-time reception record with 13 on January 2, 2015.

Utah

- In Coach Kyle Whittingham's 15th year leading the Utes they finished the regular season as Pac-12 South Champions with an 11-1 record earning him Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors.
- This is the fourth-straight year the Pac-12 Coach of the Year will be on the sidelines for the Valero Alamo Bowl.
- Utah is 7-0 when they score first and 10-0 when they lead at halftime. Both Utah losses were at night.
- A win in the Valero Alamo Bowl would give the Utes their highest win total since 2008 when they went 13-0 and were Sugar Bowl Champions.
- Whittingham boasts the second-best bowl win percentage in NCAA history at 84% with an 11-2 record.
- The Utes are 4-1 in the last five head-to-head meetings against Big 12 opponents including a 30-14 win against West Virginia in the 2017 Heart of Dallas Bowl.
- Senior quarterback Tyler Huntley ranks 2nd in completion percentage at 73.7%, 4th in yards-per-pass attempt with 10.67, and 8th in yards per completion with 14.47. The Valero Alamo Bowl record for completion percentage is 77% set by Washington State's Chad Davis in 1994, the game's last New Year's Eve kickoff.
- Zach Moss has rushed for more than 200 yards twice in his Utah career. Both 200+ totals were on the road: 211 yard vs. UCLA on 10/26/18 and 203 yards vs. Arizona on 11/23/19. The Valero Alamo Bowl has two 200 yard rushers in its 26-year history: Nebraska's Dan Alexander (240 yards vs. Northwestern in 2000) and Baylor's Terrance Ganaway (200 vs. Washington in 2011).
- All-American and Ted Hendricks Award finalist defensive end, Bradlee Anae, has 12.5 sacks this season and 29.5 for his career. Texas' Alex Okafor set the Valero Alamo Bowl all-time sack record with 4.5 in 2012 in the Longhorns win over Oregon State.
- Utah leads FBS in rushing defense (70.3) with opponents averaging just 2.69 yards per carry. The Utes also rank third in total defense (256.2), sixth in FBS in scoring defense (13.2) and 12th in red zone defense (.720).

GAME DAY INFORMATION

Game Day Telephones/Internet Access

Complimentary WiFi is available in the press box and Wi-Fi and ethernet is available in the photo workroom.

Frequency Coordination

Any media member with a camera or video camera must register with our frequency coordinator on game day. At the east entrance, you can enter and have your bag tagged and registered. Then you must check-in at the photo workroom, located on the Field Level, where you will receive a photo vest. You will not be allowed onto the field with a camera if you have not registered with the coordinator and aren't wearing a photo vest.

Valero Alamo Bowl Outstanding Players

The Outstanding Offensive and Defensive Players for the Valero Alamo Bowl will be named through online media voting. Visit alamo.statbroadcast.com during the fourth quarter, then click on the link on the right-hand side to place your vote.

Post-Game Field Access

The quickest way to get to the field and locker rooms from the press box is via an internal stairwell that is adjacent to the East elevators. Directional signage will be posted. Media can also access the field and the post-game interview room by taking the Alamodome East elevators outside the press box to level 1, making a left and following directional signage.

Post-Game Interviews

Head coaches and select players will be available to the media following the conclusion of the game. A formal interview room will be clearly marked and located down the hall from the locker rooms. The losing team will be at the dais first followed by winning team. Audio will be piped into press box and shown on stadium videowalls. Quotes will also be provided. Admission to each school's locker room will be granted in accordance with each school's post-game interview policy.

Media Shuttle Information

A media shuttle will go between the Media sign in front of the Convention Center (across from the Marriott Rivercenter) to the Alamodome. During Bowl Week, the shuttle will be available before and after scheduled press conferences. On game day, the shuttle will run from 2 – 5:30 p.m. as well as 2.5 hours post-game. The shuttle can be contacted at (210) 570-7635. Lyft vouchers will also be available upon request.

Texas Offense

The University of Texas fields one of the nation's most productive offenses in 2019, highlighted by the Longhorns' 35.0 points-per-game average.

Led by junior quarterback Sam Ehlinger, Texas' offense ranks in the top 20 nationally in passing yards per game (296.2), third down conversions (49.1%), scoring average (35.0), total offense per game (468.2) and turnovers lost (13). Ehlinger has thrown for 3,462 yards and 29 touchdowns, and accounted for 4,052 yards of total offense and 35 total touchdowns, in 2019. His 3,462 passing yards are the third most by a quarterback in Texas history, and his 29 passing touchdowns are tied with Colt McCoy for the second-best tally by a Longhorn. The Austin, Texas native is only the third UT player to surpass 4,000 yards of total offense in a season, joining Longhorn Legends Vince Young, who achieved the feat in 2005, and Colt McCoy, who did so in 2008, in that club.

Ehlinger's top target has been senior wide receiver Devin Duvernay, who has caught 103 passes for 1,294 yards and eight touchdowns this season. Duvernay leads the country in receptions and receptions per game, and his 1,294 receiving yards are the fourth-best tally among FBS receivers this year. Duvernay 2019 tallies both rank second in school history, behind only former consensus All-American Jordan Shipley's historic 2009 campaign. Duvernay is one of only two Power Five receivers with more than 90 catches and more than 1,000 receiving yards this year. He has produced seven 100-yard games, tying the Texas record, and is one shy of the FBS lead in that category this season.

The Longhorns have been effective in several stages of the game offensively in 2019, most notably on third downs. Texas has converted 86-of-175 (49.1%) third downs this season, a mark which ranks in the top 10 nationally. UT has gone 6-1 in games where they convert more than 50% of their third downs, and are 1-4 when held under 50%.

Texas has also been one of the nation's elite at holding onto the football. The Longhorns have surrendered only 13 turnovers in 2019, tied with Kansas State for the fewest in the Big 12. UT ranks 16th nationally in that category. Texas is 16-4 in Tom Herman's tenure as head coach when winning the turnover battle.

Tom Herman's team has dialed up the pressure when it counts on offense, with its best showings coming in the fourth quarter this year.

Texas leads the nation with 144 points scored in the fourth quarter. Iowa State is the only other Power Five team to score more than 125 points in the fourth quarter this year.

The Longhorns have put in a number of effective shifts offensively this year, none more so than a win over Kansas. Texas' victory over Kansas marked the first time in UT history that a Longhorn trio had a 390-yard passer (QB Sam Ehlinger, 399 yards), a 100-yard rusher (RB Keaontay Ingram, 101 yards) and a 100-yard receiver (WR Devin Duvernay, 110) in the same game. The Longhorns' trio was one yard shy of being the first 400/100/100 crew in UT history. Further adding to Texas' well-rounded display against Kansas, WR Collin Johnson (8 catches, 96 yards) was four yards shy of breaking the century mark and QB Sam Ehlinger (14 carries, 91 yards) was nine yards shy of his third-career 100-yard game.

Texas Defense

The Texas defense has made plays when it counted this season, and ranks in the top half of the FBS in a number of categories. The Longhorns are a top-50 team defensively on fourth down (.421), blocked kicks (2), passes intercepted (12), rushing defense (139.8) and turnovers gained (19).

The UT defense has gone as its leaders have gone this season. Senior defensive back Brandon Jones, senior defensive lineman Malcolm Roach and sophomore linebacker Joseph Ossai have been the units most present faces throughout 2019.

Jones has been a force for the Texas defense so far in 2019. He has racked up a team-high 86 tackles (7.2 pg), including 4.5 for a loss, broken up four passes, picked off two passes, forced one fumble and recovered one. He is one of six team captains elected by their teammates for the 2019 season, and is also a semifinalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award in 2019. The senior led a UT defense that held a potent Oklahoma State offense to just three TDs on 14 possessions, forcing field goals on two drives that ended inside the Texas 10-yard line. Against OSU, Jones led a secondary that limited 2018 Biletnikoff Award finalist Tylan Wallace to just five catches for 83 yards. The Horns held Wallace to just two catches for 17 yards in the second half. Wallace had 10 catches for 298 yards and four TDs in his previous two games.

Jones, who had 70 tackles and earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors a season ago, is the first Longhorn to log at least 70 tackles in consecutive seasons since Steve Edmond did so from 2012-14. He posted a career-high 12 tackles (11 solo) during Texas' 49-24 win over Texas Tech in his last game at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

Roach, another of the six team captains elected by their teammates for the 2019 season, has been routinely praised by head coach Tom Herman in recent weeks for his leadership within the locker room. This season, Roach has logged 36 total tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and one quarterback hurry. He also blocked a PAT against Kansas, which was recovered and returned by D'Shawn Jamison for a defensive two-point conversion in the fourth quarter of a 50-48 win. In his final game at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium, Roach racked up four tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. His two TFLs led the team against Texas Tech. Roach's pressure off the edge kept Texas Tech's rushing attack in check, as the Red Raiders managed just 71 yards on the ground against the Longhorns.

In his best outing of the season, Roach notched five total tackles, four TFLs, and his first sack of the season at TCU. He is the second Longhorn to record four TFLs in a game during Tom Herman's tenure as head coach (4.0 -Gary Johnson vs. USC, 2018).

Ossai, meanwhile, has amassed 81 tackles, including 56 solo stops, and leads the team with nine quarterback hurries this year. He also has notched 7.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, intercepted two passes, forced a fumble and blocked a kick. Ossai has recorded eight-plus tackles on six occasions in his career. The first was an eight-tackle performance in the 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 5 Georgia last season. He is the sixth Longhorn in the last 20 seasons to record make at least eight tackles on seven-or-more occasions in a season.

Texas also fields a number of other prominent performers in DBs Caden Sterns, Chris Brown and DeMarvion Overshown, as well as DL Keondre Coburn, among others.

Texas Special Teams

Texas' special teams unit has been key to the Longhorns' success throughout the 2019 season.

Sophomore K Cameron Dicker has made 31 of his 42 career field goal attempts. He is 13-for-17 (76%) on field goal tries in 2019. His 18 makes in 2018 were the most by a freshman in UT history. Dicker converted on two field goals, including the game-winning 26-yard try as time expired, to help lift Texas to a 27-24 win over No. 16 Kansas State. It was the Longhorns' second-straight outing at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium that Dicker capped with a game-winning field goal as time-expired. He also did so with a 33-yard effort against Kansas to give the Horns a 50-48 win. Dicker is the only player in Texas history to record two walk-off plays during their career, both of which have come this season. The sophomore's clutch kick against K-State marked his third career game-winning field goal. His first was a 40-yard effort with nine seconds left that gave Texas a 48-45 win over No. 7 Oklahoma in the 2018 AT&T Red River Showdown. Dicker made both of his field goal tries against No. 6 Oklahoma in this year's edition AT&T Red River Showdown. He booted a 57-yard field goal against Rice on Sept. 14.

It was the longest made kick by a Longhorn since Jeff Ward's 57-yarder at Texas A&M on Nov. 28, 1985.

It is also tied for the longest field goal in the FBS this season. Illinois' James McCourt and Penn State's Jordan Stout both also made 57-yard tries on Sept. 14. In the return game, D'Shawn Jamison has already proven that he can break a big one at any time. Earlier this season against Rice, he returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the first by a Longhorn since D.J. Monroe in 2012. Jamison previously recorded a 90-yard punt return touchdown at Kansas State on Sept. 29, 2018. He joined Raymond Clayborn, Quan Cosby, Jordan Shipley and Selvin Young as the only Longhorns to return both a punt and kickoff for a touchdown in UT history. The sophomore defensive back also continued to flash his return skills against Kansas on Oct. 19, when he recovered a blocked PAT and returned it 90-plus yards for a defensive two-point conversion.

Texas ranks 10th nationally, and second in the Big 12, with an average return of 25.2 yards on kickoffs this season. Defensively, the Longhorns are stout in the punt game, allowing only 3.6 yards per return – the 14th-best mark in the country in 2019.

Utah Offense

Utah features a balanced offense that has ranked among the most efficient in all of FBS in 2019, and also boasts big-play ability. The Utes, who rank second in completion percentage (73.2%) and seventh in team passing efficiency (177.79), have logged five games this season with more than 500 yards of total offense, their most since 2005. Utah also has scored 30 or more points in 10 of their 13 games, the most by a Utah team since 2008.

Ranked 10th in FBS in yards per play (6.75), Utah features All-American running back Zack Moss and fellow first-team All-Pac-12 choice Tyler Huntley at quarterback. Moss, who has accumulated the sixth-most rushing yards among active FBS players (4,010), leads the Pac-12 and is the nation's No. 12 rusher at 113.3 yards per game. The Doak Walker and Maxwell Award semifinalist ranks 13th in all-purpose yards (144.4), 12th in rushing touchdowns (15) and 17th in total touchdowns (17). He has broken six Utah Football career records in 2019 and tied one single-season record.

Huntley, a finalist for multiple quarterback awards, ranks sixth in ESPN Total QBR (84.0) and combines pin-point accuracy with the ability to stretch the defense. The senior ranks second in the FBS in completion percentage (73.7%), fourth in yards-per-pass-attempt (10.67), fifth in passing efficiency (181.9) and eighth in yards per completion (14.47). Huntley is tied for the FBS lead with two pass completions of 80 yards or longer, and enters his final game with 7,225 career passing yards, 45 touchdown passes and a 23-9 record as a starting quarterback—the third-most wins in Utah Football history.

Under the guidance of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Andy Ludwig, who had considerable success in a previous stint at Utah (2005-08), the Utes have made terrific use of the tight end position and utilized seven different wide receivers who boast 10 or more receptions. Sophomores Cole Fotheringham and Brant Kuithe often start in a two-tight-end set, and Kuithe has emerged as a threat both through the air and on the ground with nine total touchdowns—six receiving and three rushing. He averages 18.5 yards per reception as the leading receiver on the team (31-572) and 14.6 yards per rush. Senior Demari Simpkins is the leading pass-catcher among wide receivers (30-340, 1 TD), while sophomore Bryan Thompson is the big-play threat with a 26.6-yard average on 17 receptions (452 yards).

A relatively young offensive line gelled in training camp and provided great stability to let the playmakers shine throughout the season. The unit allowed just 1.7 sacks per game and paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged 4.9 yards per carry, 207 yards per game and scored 34 touchdowns on the ground. Together with a stingy defense, the Utah offense contributed to an astounding ranking of No. 2 in the nation in time-of-possession average (34:33). Also key in that ball-control success is a 47.8-percent success rate on third downs, 13th in the nation, to extend drives and keep opposing offenses off the field.

Utah Defense

One of the most consistently dominating defenses in the nation, led by Broyles Award finalist Morgan Scalley, smothered opponents in 2019 and put up numbers not seen in the Pac-12 for more than a decade.

The Utes feature the No. 1 rushing defense in the nation, allowing just 70.3 yards per game on the ground, and allow opponents just 2.7 yards per carry. Ranked third in total defense, the Utes' senior-laden defensive unit has played a key role in establishing the team as one of just three top 25 teams the FBS to rank in the top 10 in the nation in both offensive (10th) and defensive (4th) yards per play.

Five defensive starters earned first-team All-Pac-12 recognition, including senior defensive tackle Leki Fotu, who stuffs the run as well as any interior lineman in the nation. Senior All-America defensive end Bradlee Anae is tied for seventh in the FBS in sacks with 12.5, and enters his final collegiate game tied for the all-time Utah Football record with 29.5 career sacks. That figure put forth by the Ted Hendricks Award finalist ranks fourth among all active FBS players. Fellow senior and second-team All-Pac-12 selection John Penisini pairs with Fotu to clog up the middle and dominate the trenches for the Utes.

Utah, which also ranks third in pass efficiency defense (108.86) and sixth in scoring defense (13.2), has held 10 of its 13 opponents under 70 rushing yards, the most by an FBS team in a season since 2006 (Michigan, 11). The Utes have held six opponents this season to 7 points or fewer and have posted two shutouts.

Linebackers Francis Bernard and Devin Lloyd lead the team in tackles for a defense that has allowed opponents the fewest offensive snaps per game (58.2) and ties for second in the nation with five defensive touchdowns scored. Bernard, a senior, has earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors for his 83 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss and two interceptions—one of which he returned 58 yards for a touchdown. Sophomore Lloyd, the team's leading tackler with 85 stops, also has a pick-six, taking an interception back 64 yards for a score. Lloyd's exploits don't stop there, as he ranks second on the team in sacks (5.5) and tackles for loss (9.0).

The Utes' secondary features two All-Americans in senior safety Julian Blackmon and junior cornerback Jaylon Johnson. Blackmon's four interceptions lead the team, while his 60 tackles rank fourth and include 1.5 sacks and four tackles for loss.

Johnson shuts down one half of the field and has two interceptions and a team-leading 13 passes defended to go with 36 tackles. Senior safety Terrell Burgess, who ranks third on the team with 75 tackles, will join five teammates at the Senior Bowl with his 6.0 tackles for loss and one interception. Junior nickel back Javelin Guidry joined Burgess in earning honorable mention All-Pac-12, among 10 total players on the defensive side of the ball to receive All-Pac-12 recognition.

Utah Special Teams

The Utes entered the 2019 season with the rare challenge of replacing both a Lou Groza Award-winning kicker and Ray Guy Award-winning punter. Matt Gay and Mitch Wishnowsky were both drafted by NFL teams and are enjoying successful rookie seasons, which opened the door for new talent to follow their path in Salt Lake City. A pair of freshmen stepped in and stabilized both units, providing a strong complement to the Utes' highly ranked offense and defense.

Kicker Jadon Redding has been good on 9 of 12 field goal attempts and perfect on all 55 PAT attempts to account for 82 points on the year. His longest attempt was good for 42 yards. Punter Ben Lennon placed nearly 50-percent of his punts inside opponents' 20-yard line (18 of 37) and registered just one touchback. He had just seven punts returned, for an average of 4.7 yards, and 21 of his 37 punts resulted in fair catches. Two of his punts traveled 50 yards or longer, including a long of 62.

Senior Demari Simpkins has made an impact in the punt return game with an average close to 10 yards per return (9.6). He scored a touchdown on a 66-yard return in the regular-season finale against Colorado, when Utah clinched the Pac-12 South title.

The Utes have returned 25 punts on the season and allowed just seven returns by opponents, yielding just 4.7 yards per return.

New kickoff rules limit the number of returns in the game, but senior wide receiver Derrick Vickers has made the most of his team-leading five returns by compiling an average of 23.6 yards per return. Conversely, the coverage unit has been on point this season, allowing an average of just 19.0 yards per return, and no return longer than 33 yards.

2019 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

2018 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#13 Washington State 28, #24 Iowa State 26

Dec. 28, 2018 - 60,675 - ESPN

In yet another Valero Alamo Bowl that came down to the final minutes, #13 Washington State Cougars successfully held off #24 Iowa State Cyclones to secure a two-point victory.

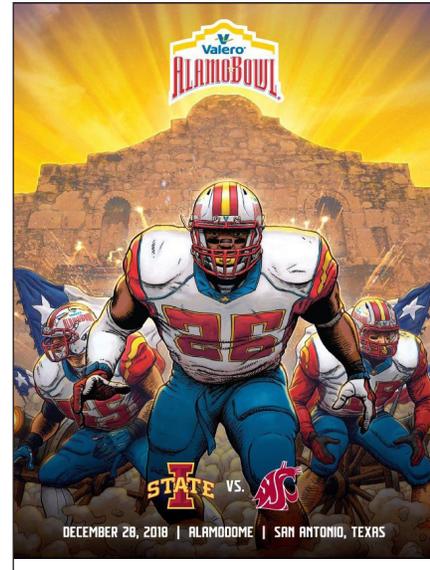

Washington State, quarterbacked by Gardner Minshew II, took control of the first half with a 21-10 lead. A strong Washington State defense held Iowa State scoreless until the 25th minute of the half when Iowa State's true freshman quarterback, Brock Purdy, responded with a 9-yard TD run. Minshew completed his second touchdown pass of the half to wide receiver Dezmon Patmon to increase their lead to 14. In the final seconds of the second quarter, Iowa State kicker, Connor Assalley, cleared the uprights for a 50-yard field goal making it 21-10 at the half.

Iowa State returned for the second half firing on all cylinders, outscoring Washington State 10-0 in the third quarter. David Montgomery's 8-yard run and Assalley's 23-yard field goal closed the gap to one point. The Cyclone defense prevented the Cougars from increasing their lead, forcing three consecutive punts.

After a fourth quarter Iowa State fumble recovered by Washington State linebacker Peyton Pelluer, a 20-yard pass to Davontavean Martin followed by a 10-yard run from Max Borghi resulted in what would eventually be the game winning touchdown. In the final five minutes of the game Iowa State scored on a 74-yard drive bringing the score within two. After a failed two-point conversion, Washington State gained possession and ran out the final minutes on the clock to become the 2018 Valero Alamo Bowl Champions.

The 2018 game marked the second consecutive bowl game the Cyclones played in since the 2011 and 2012 seasons. Brock Purdy passed for 315 yards and wide receiver Hakeem Butler caught nine passes for 192 yards, just six yards shy of the Alamo Bowl record.

The Cougars 11-2 record marked their winningest season in program history. After throwing for 299 yards and two touchdowns, Minshew became the Pac-12 single season leader in passing yards and completions, broke the bowl record for most pass completions with 35 and was named the Valero Alamo Bowl Offensive MVP.

2019 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

2017 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#15 TCU 39, #13 Stanford 37

Dec. 28, 2017 - 57,653 - ESPN

Since 2005, 10 Valero Alamo Bowls have not been decided until the final minutes. The 2017 Valero Alamo Bowl was no different as #15 TCU held on in the final minutes to win 39-37 against #13 Stanford.

The Horned Frogs now hold the first and second largest comebacks in Valero Alamo Bowl history, overcoming a 21-3 first-half deficit this year against Stanford and a 31-point deficit at halftime against Oregon two years ago in a thrilling triple overtime win.

Stanford controlled the ball in the first half, including a 15-yard run from running back and Heisman finalist Bryce Love in the first quarter and two touchdown passes from quarterback KJ Costello to wide receiver J.J. Arcega-Whiteside to take a 21-3 lead at the half.

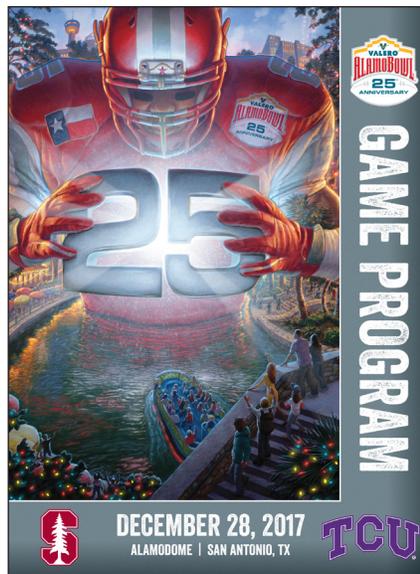

TCU stormed back in the second half behind big plays from quarterback Kenny Hill, who won Valero Alamo Bowl offensive MVP honors, and a 76-yard punt return from receiver Desmon White, which broke a Valero Alamo Bowl record.

In the fourth consecutive Top-15 matchup in Valero Alamo Bowl history, TCU receiver Jalen Reagor racked up 169 receiving yards, third-best in Valero Alamo Bowl history, and recorded another Valero Alamo Bowl record 93-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Stanford's Bryce Love ran for 145 yards and had a 69-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, while Costello and Arcega-Whiteside connected for a Valero Alamo Bowl record third touchdown pass in the fourth quarter giving Stanford a 37-36 lead with 6:42 on the clock.

TCU's Cole Bunce's 33-yard field goal with just over three minutes left put the Horned Frogs up 39-37 and an interception by safety Innis Gaines with two minutes left secured a TCU victory.

TCU linebacker Travin Howard earned Valero Alamo Bowl defensive MVP honors for the second time in the last three years after tallying four solo and six assisted tackles on the night.

2019 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

2016 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#12 Oklahoma State 38, #10 Colorado 8

Dec. 29, 2016 - 59,815 - ESPN

Oklahoma State's 38-8 victory in the 2016 Valero Alamo Bowl was the third largest margin of victory in Valero Alamo Bowl history. This was also the Cowboys' fourth visit, and second victory, with the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Quarterback Mason Rudolph connected with receiver James Washington nine times for 171 yards and a touchdown.

Rudolph finished his noteworthy Valero Alamo Bowl performance with a 314-yard, three touchdowns-showing against Colorado. Rudolph was the ninth player to pass for 300 yards and the seventh to pass for at least three touchdowns in Bowl history.

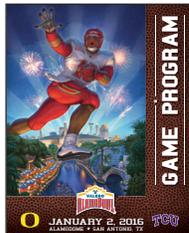

Oklahoma State did much of their damage offensively through the air but the ground game was still a factor for the Cowboys as they rushed for 189 yards. Cowboys freshman tailback Justice Hill carried 19 times for 100 yards and a TD, and Chris Carson ran 11 times for 61 yards and scored once.

2015 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#11 TCU 47, #15 Oregon 41 (3OT)

Jan. 2, 2016 - 64,569 - ESPN

For the second consecutive year, the Valero Alamo Bowl saw a furious second half comeback as TCU scored 31 consecutive points in the second half after a first half in which the Horned Frogs were the victim of a 31-0 Oregon onslaught.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the first overtime period as Kohlhausen found Emanuel Porter for a passing TD and Oregon running back Royce Freeman pounded in his third TD of the game. Neither team would find the end zone in the second OT period as both teams traded field goals to extend the game.

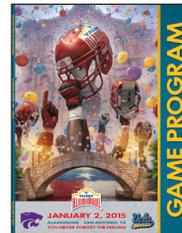

With the element of the extra point eliminated in the third overtime period, the game took on a new dynamic. Kohlhausen ran in another score to give TCU a 47-41 lead, but could not add the two-point conversion. With their backs against the wall, the TCU defense came up big on 4th down as they batted down an Oregon pass to win the game and finish the comeback.

2014 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#14 UCLA 40, #11 Kansas State 35

Jan. 2, 2015 - 60,517 - ESPN

No. 14 UCLA withstood an incredible second half comeback by No. 11 Kansas State and held on to win 40-35 in the 2014 Valero Alamo Bowl.

Kansas State was unable to recover an onside kick with 1:21 remaining in the game and UCLA kneeled the ball to cool what was a Wildcat scoring explosion in the second half.

Kansas State scored 15 unanswered points in the third quarter to overcome a 31-6 halftime deficit and cut the lead to 31-21 before the Bruins got a field goal from Ka'imi Fairbairn to go up 10. Kansas State executed a 15-play, 91-yard drive capped off by a one-yard TD run by Jake Waters to cut the lead to 34-28.

UCLA responded quickly with a 67-yard TD run by Paul Perkins and after a failed two point conversion, led 40-26. Waters led the Wildcats back down the field and threw a 29-yard TD pass to Tyler Lockett, to end the scoring.

2019 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

2013 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#10 Oregon 30, Texas 7

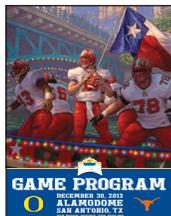

Dec. 30, 2013 - 65,918 - ESPN

No. 10 Oregon's 30-7 win in the 2013 Valero Alamo Bowl spoiled Mack Brown's final game of his hall of fame career at Texas.

Oregon quarterback, Marcus Mariota, ran for 133 yards - a Valero Alamo Bowl record for a quarterback. His 253 passing yards and touchdown pass helped lead the Ducks to their third straight bowl victory.

Oregon senior receiver Josh Huff's 104 receiving yards helped him set the Oregon single-season receiving record with 1,140 yards. His touchdown reception helped Oregon extend its lead just before halftime.

The standing room only crowd of 65,918 was the second-highest attendance in Valero Alamo Bowl history and the game's third-straight sellout. With 7.6 million views, the 2013 game was the 7th most-watched non-BCS game in ESPN history.

2012 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#23 Texas 31, #13 Oregon State 27

Dec. 29, 2012 - 65,277 - ESPN

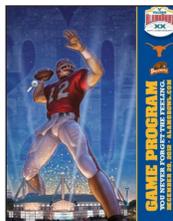

No. 23 Texas overcame a 10-point deficit to beat No. 13 Oregon State 31-27 in another sold out Valero Alamo Bowl.

Longhorn quarterback David Ash threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Johnathan Gray to cut the lead to three and later threw a 36-yard TD pass to Marquise Goodwin to give the Longhorns the win.

Goodwin, later voted offensive MVP, also had a 64-yard touchdown run in second quarter.

Texas defensive end Alex Okafor's 4.5 sack performance set a Valero Alamo Bowl record. The senior pass rusher and defensive MVP for the game also had nine tackles and a forced fumble.

This win was the Longhorns 28th comeback victory under Mack Brown and one of 17 that occurred in the fourth quarter.

2011 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

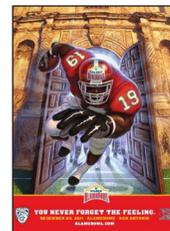

#12 Baylor 67, Washington 56

Dec. 29, 2011 - 65,256 - ESPN

No. 12 Baylor pulled out a thrilling Valero Alamo Bowl victory in the highest-scoring regulation game in bowl history. The Bears defeated Washington 67-56 on Dec. 29, 2011 at the Alamodome in front of a crowd of 65,256.

Baylor quarterback Robert Griffin III, the first reigning Heisman Trophy winner to appear in the Valero Alamo Bowl, threw for one touchdown and rushed for another. But it was Baylor tailback and offensive MVP, Terrance Ganaway, who led the way with 200 yards and five touchdowns.

The game set various bowl records, including total points in regulation and total offense in a bowl game. Washington took a 56-53 lead with 9:40 to go on a Keith Price 8-yard touchdown run. But the Bears answered with Ganaway's fourth TD of the night to take a lead that Baylor wouldn't relinquish.

2010 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

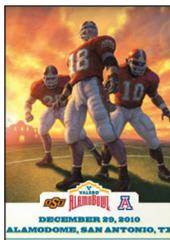

#14 Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10
Dec. 29, 2010 - 57,595 - ESPN

The No. 14 Oklahoma State Cowboys used a balanced offensive attack to knock off the Arizona Wildcats in the 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl.

Before coming to San Antonio, Oklahoma State wide receiver, Justin Blackmon, had to make a stop in Florida to pick up the Biletnikoff Award as the best receiver in the country. The Biletnikoff winner impressed under the Dome's bright lights as he hauled in nine catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns.

The win netted the Cowboys their 11th victory of the season, the most in program history at the time.

The Cowboy defense held Arizona quarterback Nick Foles in check - intercepting him three times and holding the Wildcat offense to 10 points.

2009 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

Texas Tech 41, Michigan State 31
Jan. 2, 2010 - 64,757 - ESPN

The 2009 Valero Alamo Bowl was one for the ages as Texas Tech interim coach Ruffin McNeil led the Red Raiders to a 41-31 upset over the Michigan State Spartans.

TTU quarterback Taylor Potts completed 29 passes for 372 yards and two TDs in the win. Running back Baron Batch balanced the Red Raider attack by running for 100 yards in addition to two scores.

Future NFL Pro Bowler, Kirk Cousins, struggled as the Spartan leader threw two interceptions in the contest.

The game went back and forth through three quarters before Michigan State took a 31-27 lead early in the 4th. But Steven Sheffield gave the Red Raiders a lead with just over five minutes left in the game, and Baron Batch finished it off with another touchdown later in the quarter.

The win kicked off a four-bowl game win streak for Texas Tech.

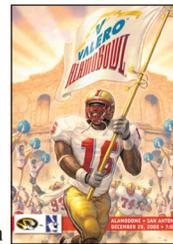

2008 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

#23 Missouri 30, #20 Northwestern 23 (OT)
Dec. 29, 2008 - 55,986 - ESPN

The 2008 Valero Alamo Bowl marked the second time in the bowl's history that the game was decided in overtime. After all was said and done, No. 23 Missouri had knocked off No. 20 Northwestern after All-American Jeremy Maclin hauled in a touchdown in overtime.

Earlier in the game, Maclin electrified the crowd with a 75-yard punt return for a touchdown, the second-longest in Alamo Bowl history, late in the first half to tie the game.

Northwestern quarterback CJ Bacher had his best game of the season as his 304 yards were his season-high and his three touchdowns tied his season's best. But the Missouri defense held strong on the last play of overtime as they batted down Bacher's attempt to solidify its first Valero Alamo Bowl victory.

2007 VALERO ALAMO BOWL

Penn State 24, Texas A&M 17
Dec. 29, 2007 - 66,166 - ESPN

A Penn State victory seemed unlikely when Texas A&M took an early 14-0 lead in the 1st quarter of the 2007 Valero Alamo Bowl. But the Nittany Lions, led by Joe Paterno, stormed back to take a 17-14 just before halftime.

In the second half, Penn State's defense held tough as it held Texas A&M to just three points en route to a 24-17 win.

Penn State's Rodney Kinlaw won Offensive MVP honors after running for 143 yards on 21 carries and backup running back Evan Royster finished with 65 on nine carries. The win marked Paterno's 23rd bowl win, extending his NCAA-record over Bobby Bowden.

2006 ALAMO BOWL

#18 Texas 26, Iowa 24
Dec. 30, 2006 - 65,875 - ESPN

The Iowa Hawkeyes 10-point first quarter wasn't enough to hold off the No. 18 Texas Longhorns in the 2006 Alamo Bowl.

Iowa squandered a 4-point halftime lead, marking the first time in Bowl history that the team leading at halftime didn't end up winning.

Current NFL quarterback Colt McCoy, led the Longhorns to a victory as the freshman threw two touchdowns and 308 yards on his way to Offensive MVP honors. Jamaal Charles accounted for 98 yards from scrimmage and a touchdown, a precursor to his 1800+ yard season the following year.

Hawkeye receiver Andy Brodell did his best to keep Iowa in the ballgame by hauling down six receptions for 159 yards. Brodell's two touchdowns tied a Alamo Bowl record that wasn't topped until 2017.

2005 MASTERCARD ALAMO BOWL

Nebraska 32, #20 Michigan 28
Dec. 28, 2005 - 62,016 - ESPN

The 2005 MasterCard Alamo Bowl was one for the ages. The No. 20 Michigan Wolverines nearly pulled off the improbable on the final play of the game.

Down by four with two seconds remaining, Michigan quarterback Chad Henne completed a short pass that started a chain of eight laterals and a near miracle. Coaches and players from both teams made their way onto the field mid-play thinking the game had ended as Michigan's Tyler Ecker caught the eighth lateral and scampered up the sideline toward the end zone. But Nebraska cornerback Titus Brothers chased Ecker down and knocked him out of bounds to secure a wild and wacky 32-28 victory for the Huskers.

2004 MASTERCARD ALAMO BOWL

#22 Ohio State 33, Oklahoma State 7

Dec. 29, 2004 - 65,265 - ESPN

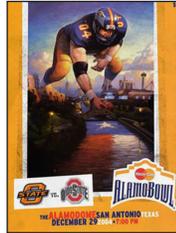

With its second-string quarterback Justin Zwick running the show, the Ohio State Buckeyes made winning look easy in the 2004 MasterCard Alamo Bowl, securing a 33-7 win over Oklahoma State.

Zwick, who replaced suspended Troy Smith, threw for 189 yards and a touchdown in the one-sided matchup.

True freshman wide receiver Ted Ginn Jr. put on an offensive show, catching six passes for 78 yards and rushing for another 40 yards and a touchdown in the victory.

Mike Nugent, the senior kicker who won the Lou Groza award that year, had a perfect night nailing four field goals and three PATs.

Ginn earned Offensive MVP honors while Defensive MVP honors went to Buckeye defensive end Simon Fraser.

2003 MASTERCARD ALAMO BOWL

#21 Nebraska 17, Michigan State 3

Dec. 29, 2003 - 56,229 - ESPN

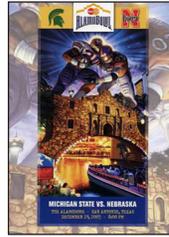

The 2003 MasterCard Alamo Bowl turned out to be a one-sided affair as the Spartans proved no match for the Cornhuskers.

Both defenses allowed no points in the second half, but a strong first performance from Nebraska gave the 9-3 Huskers a 17-3 win.

Husker quarterback Jammal Lord ran for 79 yards, including a career-long 66-yard scamper that set up running back Cory Ross' second score. But it was Lord's arm that surprised his critics as the senior leader threw for a career-best 160 yards and earned Offensive MVP honors.

Michigan State senior quarterback Jeff Smoker was limited to 156 yards passing and his final pass as a Spartan was intercepted by Fabian Washington with 1:08 remaining.

The Blackshirt defense of Nebraska did not disappoint the Husker faithful. Nebraska recorded three interceptions and five sacks, limiting the Spartans to 18 rushing yards and 174 total, more than 200 below its average.

2002 MASTERCARD ALAMO BOWL

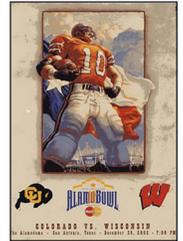

Wisconsin 31, #14 Colorado 28

Dec. 28, 2002 - 50,690 - ESPN

The kicking game proved the difference in a back and forth game that needed overtime.

Wisconsin kicker Mike Allen booted a 37-yard field goal in overtime to seal the 31-28 win after Colorado kicker Pat Brougham missed a 45-yard attempt in the Buffaloes' overtime possession.

The victory for Wisconsin capped off a fourth-quarter comeback that saw the Badgers drive 80 yards, convert two fourth downs and find the end zone on a one-yard-run by quarterback Brooks Bollinger, the Offensive MVP, with 51 seconds remaining.

2001 SYLVANIA ALAMO BOWL

Iowa 19, Texas Tech 16

Dec. 29, 2001 - 65,232 - ESPN

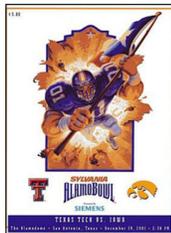

Texas Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury was picked off in the end zone by Bob Sanders on the last play of the game to secure a 19-16 Hawkeye victory.

A defensive struggle throughout, both teams relied on special teams. Iowa kicker Nate Kaeding nailed four field goals and TTU kicker Robert Treece connected on two 4th quarter field goals, including a game-tying 37-yarder with 2:05 remaining.

But the Hawkeye offense had one last drive in them as Offensive MVP tailback Aaron Greiving helped march Iowa down the field where Kaeding kicked a game-winning field goal with 44 seconds left on the clock.

The game featured big plays from future coach Kliff Kingsbury, NFL Pro Bowler Wes Welker and 2007 Defensive Player of the Year Bob Sanders.

2000 SYLVANIA ALAMO BOWL

Dec. 30, 2000 - 60,028 - ESPN

The 2000 SYLVANIA Alamo Bowl was a rout that showcased the nation's best rushing attack in the Nebraska Cornhuskers. Husker running back Dan Alexander set a Bowl record with 240 yards in Nebraska's 66-17 victory.

The Huskers led 7-3 after the 1st quarter, but a Bowl record 31-point 2nd quarter blew the game wide open. The Huskers tacked on 21 more on the Wildcat defense in the 3rd and the rout was on.

Alexander rushed for 240 yards -- the most by any Husker in a bowl game -- and two scores on 21 carries as the nation's best ground game shredded Northwestern's overmatched defense. Crouch, who would win the Heisman the following season, added four scores including two on the ground.

1999 SYLVANIA ALAMO BOWL

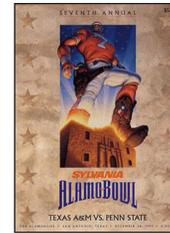

#13 Penn State 24, #18 Texas A&M

Dec. 28, 1999 - 65,380 - ESPN

No. 13 Penn State used the spark from its strong defensive squad to defeat No. 18 Texas A&M 24-0 in the 1999 SYLVANIA Alamo Bowl.

The Nittany Lion defense attacked early and often as A&M quarterback Randy McCown had his first two pass attempts intercepted, including a 34-yard return for the first score of the game by Penn State's Derek Fox.

All-American linebacker and Defensive MVP LaVar Arrington led the defensive charge for Penn State with an Alamo Bowl record 14 tackles. The defense led by future NFL veterans Arrington, defensive end Courtney Brown and linebacker Brandon Short pressured McCown into throwing four interceptions. Brown and Arrington were selected with the No. 1 and No. 2 spots in the 2000 NFL Draft respectively.

1998 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

Purdue 37, #4 Kansas State 34

Dec. 29, 1998 - 60,780 - ESPN

Drew Brees drove the unranked Purdue Boilermakers 80 yards in 54 seconds on a drive that culminated in a 24-yard touchdown pass to finish off the No. 4 Kansas State Wildcats in the 1998 SYLVANIA Alamo Bowl.

Kansas State, who had hopes of a national championship before losing the Big 12 Championship, scored 21 points in the 4th quarter but it wasn't enough to hold off the future NFL hall of famer.

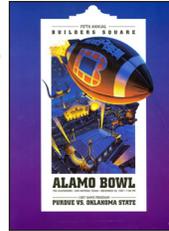

The upset victory over the Wildcats vaulted Purdue to No. 23 in the final rankings and the loss dropped K-State to 11-2 on the season and a No. 9 ranking. The Wildcats remain the highest ranked team to ever play in the Alamo Bowl.

1997 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

#16 Purdue 33, #24 Oklahoma State 20

Dec. 30, 1997 - 55,552 - ESPN

The Fifth Builders Square Alamo Bowl had all the makings of a fight to the finish. No. 16 Purdue and No. 24 Oklahoma State shared many similarities, but in the end it was the Purdue Boilermakers, who walked away with the night's top prize, a 33-20 bowl victory.

Purdue quarterback Billy Dicken, the game's Offensive MVP after throwing for a then-bowl record 325 yards, got the Purdue offense on track in the third quarter, leading the Boilermakers on three touchdown drives to break the game open.

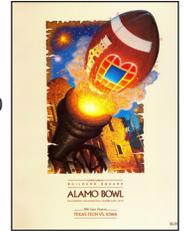

The Cowboys added a few scores of their own, but weren't able to keep up with Purdue's scoring pace.

1996 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

#21 Iowa 27, Texas Tech 0

Dec. 29, 1996 - 55,677 - ESPN

The No.21 Iowa Hawkeyes redeemed their 37-3 loss to California in the inaugural Builders Square Alamo Bowl with a dominating 27-0 victory over Texas Tech in the 1996 Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

Tech's prolific run offense never got off the ground as Doak Walker Award winner Byron Hanspard was held to 64 yards rushing by the Hawkeyes after averaging more than 200 yards a game during the regular season, while Tech quarterback Zebbie Lethridge was sacked five times by the talented Iowa defense.

For his then-bowl record rushing total of 113 yards, Iowa running back Sedrick Shaw earned the Offensive MVP award. Hawkeye Jared DeVries had two sacks and won Defensive MVP honors.

1995 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

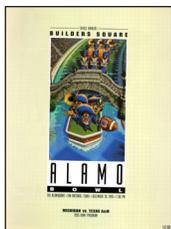

#19 Texas A&M 22, #14 Michigan 20

Dec. 28, 1995 - 64,597 - ESPN

Texas A&M's Kyle Bryant, an unlikely hero, kicked a bowl-record five field goals that gave the underdog and 19th-ranked Aggies a victory over No.14 Michigan.

A&M's strong defense held Michigan running back and Heisman candidate Tim Biakabutuka to 94 yards on 24 carries.

As both offenses struggled to get into the end zone, the field goal battle ensued as a combined seven field goals were kicked before another TD. Texas A&M took a 22-13 lead late in the fourth quarter after Bryant connected on a 37-yarder. With just five seconds left in the game, Brian Griese and Amani Toomer hooked up for a 44-yard TD pass that brought the game to a thrilling 22-20 score. But the Aggies recovered the onside kick and escaped the Dome with a victory.

1994 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

#24 Washington State 10, Baylor 3

Dec. 31, 1994 - 44,106 - ESPN

The second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl was a defensive battle between the Pac-10's Washington State Cougars and the Southwest Conference's Baylor Bears.

With the nation's second-ranked defense, Washington State stifled the Baylor offense. The Cougars held Baylor, which set a school record with 359 points during the 1994 regular season, to just 151 yards of total offense. The Bears finished the game with the fewest points, fewest first downs and fewest rushing yards of the season. Not to be outdone, Baylor's physical defense also limited Washington State to just seven yards rushing.

Baylor had a chance to tie the game late, but the Cougars intercepted the Bears to seal their fate and hold on to the 10-3 win.

1993 BUILDERS SQUARE ALAMO BOWL

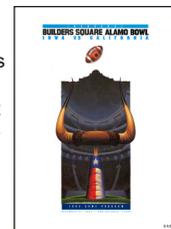

Cal 37, Iowa 0

Dec. 31, 1993 - 45,716 - ESPN

The inaugural Builders Square Alamo Bowl featured the Iowa Hawkeyes of the Big Ten Conference against the Cal Golden Bears of the Pacific-10 Conference.

Cal ran up 445 yards of total offense compared to Iowa's 90, the largest difference in bowl history. Dave Barr, the game's Offensive MVP, completed 21 of 28 passes for 266 yards and fired three touchdown passes as the Bears won their third consecutive bowl game.

The win marked California's 20th victory in 23 games over non-conference opponents from 1989-93.
