2026 VALERO ALAMO BOWL DECEMBER MICRO-INTERNSHIP

DECEMBER 14, 2026 – DECEMBER 31, 2026

Not quite sure of your future career path? Need some additional experience on your resume?

The Valero Alamo Bowl's Micro-Internship offers current college students a short-term volunteer opportunity to explore different aspects of putting on a live event while gaining tangible experience in the sports industry.

This is a 100% in-person volunteer position as selected students will gain experience with a variety of tasks in the Bowl's office, at the Alamodome, and at various event venues in San Antonio. We do not provide housing.

BENEFITS

- Resume building experience in the sports/hospitality/live events industry
- Experiential learning
- Networking opportunities
- Community service hours
- Game day apparel

QUALIFICATIONS

- Current college student
- Interest in a career in the sports/hospitality/live events industry

POSSIBLE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Proofread publications
- Deliver tickets, gifts, etc. to partners
- Assist with credential labeling and distribution
- Assist staff with social media strategy
- Assist staff with event preparations, set up, execution, and teardown
- Assist staff on game day with various duties including in-stadium hospitality, sponsor activations, media support, etc.
- General office work

HOW TO BE CONSIDERED

- Send your resume to Julie Baker bakerj@alamobowl.com
- In your email, tell us why a micro-internship with the Valero Alamo Bowl will help you with your career goals as well as your anticipated availability December 14-31, 2026
- Review of resumes will begin in late August.

POST MICRO-INTERNSHIP FOLLOW UP - OPTIONAL

- Session with a Bowl staff member to review resume, discuss career opportunities, etc.